It's All About the U -
Academics • Life • Athletics

We are the Miami Hurricanes. With that honor and privilege comes a commitment to excellence—on the field, in the classroom, in every intention.

"It's All About the U" is a Department of Athletics campaign to affirm the core values of what it means to be a 'Cane. It's more than a code of conduct; it's a way of life for students, coaches, alumni, faculty and fans. It's a pledge to surpass what's expected of us and deliver our utmost with passion and pride.

Hurricane spirit is a mighty force, but our strength is not limited to athletic prowess. University of Miami student-athletes strike a deft balance between training the body for peak performance and sharpening the intellect for future success.

Beyond their athletic and academic vigor, Miami Hurricanes operate with integrity. "It's All About the U" emphasizes doing the right thing, even when no one is watching. It means being a role model in the community and someone who is always eager to help those in need.

When our fans raise their hands thumb-to-thumb, forming a "U," they are saluting a winning athletic tradition as well as showcasing their pride in one of the nation's finest institutions of higher education. Fans who know "It's All About the U" have profound respect—win or lose—for the game, the players, the officials and most of all, themselves.

We invite you to explore the many ways in which the Miami Hurricanes excel in academics, life, and athletics.

Administration

PRESIDENT DONNA E. SHALALA

Donna E. Shalala became the fifth President of the University of Miami on June 1, 2001. President Shalala is an accomplished scholar, teacher, and administrator whose career has been marked by a variety of leadership positions reflecting her interest in young people. While attending college, she played tennis and still plays a competitive game of doubles. She also enjoys golf, skiing, and other outdoor activities.

Recognizing that first-rate facilities are a key part of achieving success on the field, last year Hurricanes football embarked in an exciting new chapter with the move to Land Shark Stadium. This state-of-the-art complex offers both players and fans world-class amenities that are unparalleled in college sports.

In 1987 President Shalala, a distinguished political scientist, became chancellor of a Big Ten university, the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She led what was then the nation's largest public research university. In 1992, Business Week magazine named her one of the top five managers in higher education, and in 2005 was named one of "America's Best Leaders" by U.S. News & World Report and the Center for Public Leadership at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government.

President Shalala's success at Wisconsin was reflected in athletics as well. She hired a new football coach, recruiting Barry Alvarez from Notre Dame. Four years later, Wisconsin won the Big Ten football championship and represented its conference in the Rose Bowl for the first time in 30 years. President Shalala served on the first Knight Commission, a committee to review college athletics, and has served on the board of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Foundation. In May 2008, she was selected as an Independent Director of the U.S. Soccer Federation.

In 1993, she was named U.S. Secretary for Health and Human Services (HHS) and served for eight years, becoming the nation's longest-serving HHS Secretary. In 2000, she led the official U.S. delegation to the Olympics in Sydney, Australia. At the end of her tenure as HHS Secretary, The Washington Post described her as "one of the most successful government managers of modern times."

In 2007, U.S. President George W. Bush called upon her healthcare expertise to co-chair the Commission on Care for Returning Wounded Warriors, to evaluate how wounded service members transition from active duty to civilian society. In June 2008, President Bush presented her with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian award, at a ceremony in the White House. The medal recognizes exceptional meritorious service to individuals who have contributed to national security, world peace, or cultural endeavors.

As leader of the University of Miami, President Shalala presides over one of the most successful college athletic programs in the country. The Hurricanes football program has consistently ranked in the top of the polls. In 2001, the baseball team won its fourth College World Series and the football team won its fifth national championship. In 2003, the men and women's basketball teams began playing in a new, on-campus facility, the BankUnited Center. Other Hurricanes sports, from tennis to track, have also earned national recognition. UM celebrated the opening of the newly renovated Mark Light Stadium at Alex Rodriguez Park and a new basketball training and practice complex in 2009.

The Black Coaches Association honored her with its Image of Excellence Award for 2007.

As to her commitment to UM athletics, President Shalala said, "College sports are a vital part of our students' experience while at the University. They also help build community and instill a great sense of pride in our athletes and their accomplishments. The young men and women who play Hurricanes sports are devoted to their game both on a personal and team level, and it shows in their inspired performances time after time. Now it's up to the fans to show their support and cheer them on to many more victories." For a sports fan like President Shalala, there is no better place to call home than the University of Miami.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS KIRBY HOCUTT

Kirby Hocutt is in his second year as the Director of Athletics at the University of Miami. Introduced as UM's Director of Athletics on Feb. 8, 2008, Hocutt began his tenure as the university's 11th Director of Athletics on June 1, 2008.

Hocutt, 37, came to Miami after serving as the athletic director at Ohio University since 2005. Prior to that, he spent six years at the University of Oklahoma serving as associate athletic director for external operations and sports administration.

In his first year in Coral Gables, Hocutt established a master plan for major facilities improvements in addition to initiating the development of a strategic plan for the University of Miami athletic department. He oversaw a number of facility improvements in his initial year, including the construction of a basketball practice facility, as well as upgrades to Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field, the Neil Schiff Tennis Center and Cobb Stadium. For the first time in nine years, a new Ring of Honor class was inducted under Hocutt's direction, as Edgerrin James, Jim Kelly, Cortez Kennedy, Jim Otto and Gino Torretta were added to the prestigious class of UM football greats.

Two UM head coaches – Paige Yaroshuk-Tews (Women's Tennis) and Nicole Lantagne Welch (Volleyball) – earned Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors in Hocutt's first year at Miami, while UM student-athletes earned 15 All-America honors during the 2008-09 season. The women's tennis team also became the first women's program at UM to win an ACC title, claiming the regular season championship after going 25-4 overall and 10-1 in league play.

A former star linebacker at Kansas State, Hocutt has a total of 18 years experience in intercollegiate athletics, including five as a student-athlete.

At Ohio, Hocutt significantly reorganized the athletic department's annual giving program. His leadership led to an increase in fundraising by more than 75 percent - including the securing of the second-largest major gift in school athletics history. He also increased season ticket sales in football by 112 percent and in men's basketball by 50 percent. He developed a comprehensive plan to improve the facilities for the football stadium and its press box, as well as the Convocation Center, which houses all administrative and coaches' offices.

In his three years at Ohio, the school won 11 team championships and four head coaches were recognized as conference Coaches of the Year. In 2006, the football team played in its first bowl game in 38 years.

At Oklahoma, Hocutt was the primary administrator for football and the sport supervisor for baseball, men's and women's golf, and men's and women's tennis. His duties included supervision of the athletics development office, athletics ticket office, special events, stadium suite program, athletics endowment program, letter winners association and the department's facility use and rental program.

Hocutt led Oklahoma's athletics fundraising to an all-time high in annual giving and capital campaigns. From 1998 to 2005, Oklahoma's annual giving increased from $3.4 million to more than $17 million. That 400 percent increase in annual giving was one of the highest percentage increases in intercollegiate athletics history.

Beginning in 1999, Hocutt served in a leadership position in the strategic planning for a $100 million capital campaign. The $120 million campaign was unique in that it focused on facility construction or improvements for each of Oklahoma's 20 sports.

Prior to joining the Oklahoma staff, Hocutt served as the assistant director of licensing at the NCAA. In that position, he worked with corporate partners and licensees to create new revenue producing initiatives to support and promote all 81 NCAA championships.

He began his career in sports administration as the assistant director of marketing and promotions at Kansas State University. While at Kansas State, he implemented revenue-producing activities for the athletics department, including corporate partner sponsorships and ticket sales.

Hocutt was a four-year letterman at linebacker at KSU, leading the Big 8 Conference in tackles and earning All-Big 8 Conference team honors as a junior. In 1993, The Sporting News selected him as one of the top 20 underrated players in the nation. Hocutt also served as a team captain his senior season. Two of Hocutt's coaches at Kansas State were Bob Stoops, head football coach at Oklahoma and Jim Leavitt, the head football coach at USF.

Brooks, Diane, Drew and Kirby Hocutt

A member of the Orange Bowl Committee, Hocutt was also named to the Miami-Dade Sports Commission Board of Directors on Oct. 1, 2008.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Kansas State University in 1995 and his master's of education degree from the University of Oklahoma in 2001. He and his wife Diane have two sons, 7-year-old Drew and 5-year-old Brooks.

Academics

Antonio Dixon received his degree in the Spring of 2009. Dixon was a recipient of a 2009 Wilma Rudolph Award.

Romeo Davis receives his degree at the 2009 commencement ceremony.

A LEADER IN ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The University of Miami is committed to producing the complete student-athlete. It is a commitment with a tradition that predates even the Hurricanes' first football national championship in 1983. It is a commitment that is nationally recognized by Miami's peers in the world of college athletics.

In 2009, the UM football team ranked seventh nationally in the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) with a score of 976 — the highest among all Florida institutions and second highest in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

In 2008, the UM football team achieved a NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 969, which was the 8th-highest rate in the country out of the 119 Bowl Sub-division football programs.

In 2007, the UM football team achieved a NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 966, which was the 10th-highest rate in the country out of the 119 Bowl Sub-division football programs.

In 2006, UM had eight student-athletes named to the Atlantic Coast Conference All-Academic Team, the highest total in the conference.

In 2005, Miami recorded an 87 percent NCAA Football Graduation Rate.

UM received recognition by the American Football Coaches Association for exceeding a 70 percent graduation rate among its football student-athletes in 10 out of 16 years. The Hurricanes have exceeded the national graduation rate for AFCA member schools in 15 of 17 years.

- From 1992 to 1997, UM was one of only eight schools to graduate at least 70 percent of its football student-athletes.
- Since the AFCA began, Miami has graduated 70 percent percent of its football student-athletes.

THE 2009 FOOTBALL SENIORS
The 2009 Hurricanes have 19 seniors, of which eight have received their degrees.

THE 2008 FOOTBALL SENIORS
The 2008 Hurricanes had 23 seniors, of which 13 had already earned their degrees. The remaining graduated in December 2008 and May 2009.

The University of Miami

The University of Miami is one of the largest, most comprehensive private research universities in the southeastern United States, with a well-earned reputation for academic excellence. More than 15,000 undergraduate and graduate students from every state and 110 nations around the world call UM home during the academic semesters. The University has grown from its main location in the city of Coral Gables to the Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine campus located in Downtown Miami, the Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science on Virginia Key, the John J. Koubek Center in Little Havana, the James L. Knight Center in downtown Miami, and the South and Richmond campuses in southwest Miami-Dade County. With more than 10,000 full- and part-time faculty and staff, UM is one of the largest private employers in Miami-Dade County.

Enrollment: Total enrollment for the 2008-09 academic year was 15,323 students. Of that number, 10,008 were undergraduate students, 4,901 were graduate students. During the 2007-2008 academic year, the University awarded 2,445 bachelors, 989 master's, 380 J.D.'s, 150 M.D.'s, 116 Ph.D.'s, and 57 other doctorates.

New Freshman Standings: 46% of new freshmen graduated in the top 5 percent of their high school class. Almost two-thirds graduated in the top 10 percent of their high school class. Mean SAT was 1282.

International Students: The University continues to attract students from South Florida, as well as from other parts of the nation and around the world. It was one of the country's first universities to have an organized international recruitment program. The University of Miami sends representatives worldwide to seek qualified students. Students come from 110 foreign countries, the 50 states, three territories and the District of Columbia.

Honors Program/Honor Societies: Approximately 940 students participate in the Honors Program. UM has 54 academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa.

Research: Research and sponsored program expenditures totaled $326 million (FY 08). According to the National Science Foundation, UM ranked 66th of all universities in expenditures of federal funds for research and development (FY 07).

Budget: The budget for 2008-09 was $2.1 billion, with $1.4 billion projected for the medical campus. At the end of FY 08, the endowment for the University was $736 million.

Development: In FY 08, contributions reached $200.5 million in total private cash, gifts, and grants, and in FY 07, UM ranked 34th among all U.S. institutions in this category. In January 2006, UM increased the goal of its Momentum Campaign to $1.25 billion and raised $1.4 billion by the close of the campaign in December 2007 to support scholarships, chairs, interdisciplinary centers and research initiatives.

A WORLD-CLASS STUDENT BODY

Enrollment at the University of Miami continues to experience tremendous growth.

The student body also has become more diverse. For fall 2008, Hispanics accounted for 28 percent and African-Americans for 10 percent, while Asian students accounted for 7 percent of all undergraduate students.

For fall 2008, women accounted for approximately 50 percent of the new freshman class, 53 percent of all undergraduates and 49 percent of the graduate and professional students.

Education outside the traditional classroom is an important part of student life at the University of Miami. The University has over 80 programs offered in more than 33 countries on a full academic year, semester, or summer basis as well as UM faculty-led programs during intersession, spring break and summer.

CAMPUSES AND SCHOOLS

Coral Gables Campus: The Coral Gables campus, with its two colleges and seven schools, is located on a 230-acre tract in suburban Coral Gables.

Medical Campus: The University of Miami Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine campus consists of 68 acres within the 153-acre University of Miami/Jackson Memorial Medical Center complex. The medical center includes three University-owned hospitals that make up the University of Miami Health System (UHealth): University of Miami Hospital, Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center and Anne Bates Leach Eye Hospital, home to the top-ranked Bascom Palmer Eye Institute which was ranked the number one eye hospital in the country for the fifth year in a row in the 2008 annual survey of "America's Best Hospitals" published in U.S. News & World Report; three other programs also ranked among the best. Our primary affiliated hospitals on the medical campus include Jackson Memorial Hospital, Holtz Children's Hospital and the Miami VA Medical Center. Miller School of Medicine faculty conduct more than 1,700 research projects in basic science and clinical care in facilities totaling more than 500,000 square feet of research space. The Biomedical Research Building and a two-story wet lab building are scheduled to be completed in 2009, adding 200,000 square feet of research space. Plans are underway to build the UM Life Science Park on 2 million square feet of space adjacent to the medical campus..

Rosenstiel Campus: The Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science is located on an 18-acre waterfront campus on Virginia Key in Biscayne Bay.

South Campus: The south campus, located ten miles southwest of Coral Gables, is on a 136-acre site used for conducting research and development projects.

Richmond Campus: The Richmond campus, established in 2001, is a 76-acre site near south campus. Research facilities for the Rosenstiel School's Center for Southeastern Tropical Advanced Remote Sensing (CSTARS) and Richmond Satellite Operations Center (RSOC) are located on a portion of the new campus.

Accreditation: Southern Association of Colleges and Schools; 24 professional accrediting agencies.

The school offers interdisciplinary undergraduate and graduate level coursework in marine biology and fisheries, meteorology and physical oceanography, marine affairs and policy, marine and atmospheric chemistry, marine geology and geophysics, and applied marine physics. Fall 2008 enrollment: 333.

City of Miami

WHERE THE HEAT IS ON

"Welcome to Miami... bienvenidos a Miami." With 84 miles of Atlantic coastline, yearlong sunshine and a boasted average daily temperature of 75 degrees, it is no wonder in his hit single, Will Smith dubbed Miami "the city where the heat is on."

THE HEAT ON THE COURT
Thanks to South Florida's year-round, sports-friendly climate, Miami has a lot to offer in outdoor recreational activities. From some of the PGA's finest golf courses to almost 700 parks, there is something for everyone. With countless opportunities for kayaking, scuba-diving, fishing, beach volleyball and rollerblading, there is no excuse for going without a tan.

South Florida truly has the perfect weather for sports and is one of only eight metropolitan areas in the United States that can boast of a professional franchise in each of the four major sports. The Major League's Florida Marlins had everybody "doing the fish" when they won the World Series in 1997 and 2003. The NFL's Miami Dolphins have thrilled fans for decades at Dolphin Stadium, which hosted the Super Bowl in 1995, 1999 and 2007. Despite the warm weather, South Florida's own hockey team, the Florida Panthers, keep up on the ice. And for basketball fans, the 2006 NBA Champion Miami Heat keep things hot at the American Airlines Arena.

MIAMI IS CALIENTE
Truly a melting pot, Miami is home to a variety of cultures, creating a totally unique, vibrant cultural mosaic. With representatives of every Hispanic nation in the world, Spanish serves as a second language to most of Miami's residents. Little Havana is the heart of Miami's Cuban community, where churro vendors line the streets, the aroma of high-octane cafe Cubano fills the air and the spirit of friendly competition fills Domino Park.

The spirit of the Caribbean is alive in Little Haiti, where many Haitian artists, musicians and entrepreneurs get their start in Miami. The proud focal point of this neighborhood is the Caribbean Market, an open-air replica of Port-au-Prince's Iron Market, where Creole is the dominant language.

SIZZLING THE SILVER SCREEN
With tropical weather, a high-quality labor pool, low production costs and direct links to Latin America, Miami has become one of the most important entertainment centers in the world. Dubbed as the Latin-American Hollywood by the New York Times, such block busters as Big Trouble—written by Miami Herald columnist Dave Barry, Any Given Sunday, There's Something About Mary, The Birdcage and Wild Things were all filmed in Miami.

A Hollywood favorite off-screen as well, Miami is home to dozens of celebrities and even more consider it a favorite weekend get-away. Glorida and Emilio Estefan's Star Island estate and Gianni Versace's Ocean Drive mansion-turned-museum are just a couple examples of Miami's celebrity appeal. It is not uncommon to spot Sean "Diddy" Combs or Jamie Foxx dancing at a South Beach club or former president Bill Clinton playing golf at the Biltmore Hotel.

MIAMI HOT SPOTS
For shopping, dancing or just plain people watching, Miami offers several places to see and be seen.

With over 800 buildings designed in the '30s and '40s, South Beach serves as the largest collection of Art Deco architecture in the world. Celebrity-owned restaurants, like Cameron Diaz's Bambu, night clubs such as Level—based on the format of New York's Studio 54, and a medley of huge anchor stores and unique boutiques create the flavor of miami's most famous hot spot.

Coconut Grove, just a 10-minute drive from the University of Miami, is another student favorite. Built mainly by West Indian craftsmen brought in from the Bahamas, it still holds onto the Caribbean appeal its name suggests. Attracting writers, artists and non-conformists, this hub of the bohemian arts contributed to Miami's cultural renaissance. Fast-forward a century and the Grove is still one of Miami's hottest nightspots, with more than 75 cafes, restaurants and clubs that line the streets.

THE WARMTH OF CORAL GABLES, THE "CITY BEAUTIFUL"
The University of Miami campus is located in Coral Gables, dubbed the "City Beautiful". Founded by George Merrick almost a century ago, the Gables is one of Miami's most beautiful areas. The palm-lined streets are all named after European villages, each one bordered by Old Spanish style homes.

Downtown Coral Gables is bustling with the many offices of multi-national corporations, while the city's central boulevard—Miracle Mile—is home to a wide array of designer boutiques and art galleries. One Gables favorite is the Venetian Pool, a beautiful swimming lagoon carved out of coral, which features cascading waterfalls and underwater caves.

The U Family

Speak to any former or current Hurricane and the word family comes to mind when describing "The U." With a rich family tradition in place, Miami players are always welcomed back and take advantage of coming home to "The U." From football games to summer workouts, former Hurricanes always come back to be a part of that family tradition.

A reunion at Quarterback U took place at the 2008 Ring of Honor Induction as George Mira, Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde, Jim Kelly and Gino Torretta were honored.

At the University of Miami, our student-athletes, coaches and staff take great pride in giving back to the community. The Hurricanes are dedicated to the improvement of our community with a special focus on the children of South Florida. Through volunteering, student-athletes have the opportunity to serve the community and be positive role models to youth.

As an educational institution, we want to instill the importance of education and hard work into our youth through examples of leadership and dedication to our community and its members.

Through community service projects, student-athlete and staff appearances, contributions and fund-raising events, it is our goal to build a partnership with our community that will assist us in our goal of enhancing the quality of life for South Florida's youth.

The University of Miami has a number of different programs for student-athletes to become involved.

HURRICANES SPEAKERS BUREAU: Student-athletes, coaches and staff take time to speak to groups about developing a positive, winning lifestyle.

JOIN-A-TEAM, NOT-A-GANG: Its purpose is to encourage area youth to seek positive alternatives to gangs.

FUTURE CANES PROGRAM: Exposes at-risk youth, disabled persons and disadvantaged children to a university atmosphere and Hurricane athletic events.

CANES ON PATROL: Student-athletes are given an inside look at police work riding with Broward County Sheriffs and assisting in their patrols.

LIFE SKILLS AT MIAMI

The University of Miami is committed to a program that provides educational experience and services in order to develop well-balanced lifestyles for student-athletes; encourage growth in decision making, planning and fulfillment of career and life goals; and to enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience. In the process of achieving this mission, the Life Skills Program will:

- Support the efforts of every student-athlete toward graduation
- Use athletics as a preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student athletes
- Assist student-athletes to build self esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athlete of his/her academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the athletic department, other campus departments and the community for the purpose of education

Athletic Department staff work closely with the University's Counseling Center, Health Center, Wellness Center, Dean of Students and Volunteer Services to provide services for our student-athletes. We also use numerous resources from the South Florida Community for our programming. The Personal Development Component of our Life Skills Program provides student-athletes opportunities to focus on personal growth and developing healthy lifestyles.

NFL Draft

Brandon Meriweather was a first round draft pick of the New England Patriots in 2007.

Greg Olsen was the first round pick of the Chicago Bears in 2007.

Miami is No. 1 when it comes to players selected in the first round of the National Football League Draft.

46 Hurricanes have been taken in the first round of the NFL draft since 1984.

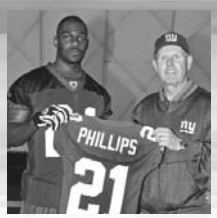
During the last 26 years, NFL teams have turned to the University of Miami more than any other college or university when it comes to premium picks in the annual draft.

87 Hurricanes have been selected in the first three rounds during this time which is tops in nation.

Miami had at least one player drafted in the first round in 14 NFL drafts between 1984 and 2008, the longest streak in NFL history.

In 2004, the Hurricanes set another NFL record for draft picks when six Miami players were selected in the first round (Sean Taylor, Kellen Winslow, Jonathan Vilma, D.J. Williams, Vernon Carey and Vince Wilfork). In 2003, Miami had four players (Andre Johnson, Jerome McDougle, Willis McGahee and William Joseph) drafted in the first round. In 2002, UM had five players selected in the first round. Miami had four first-round picks in 2001, and three first-round picks in 1987, 1991 and 2007, with UM defensive lineman Russell Maryland being selected as the No. 1 overall pick in 1991 and UM quarterback Vinny Testaverde taken as the No. 1 pick in 1987.

In 2006, Kelly Jennings was drafted in the first round by the Seattle Seahawks.



Kenny Phillips was the first round selection of the New York Giants in 2008.

The Buffalo Bills selected Jim Kelly in the first round in 1983.

Jeremy Shockey was taken in the first round of the 2002 draft by the New York Giants.

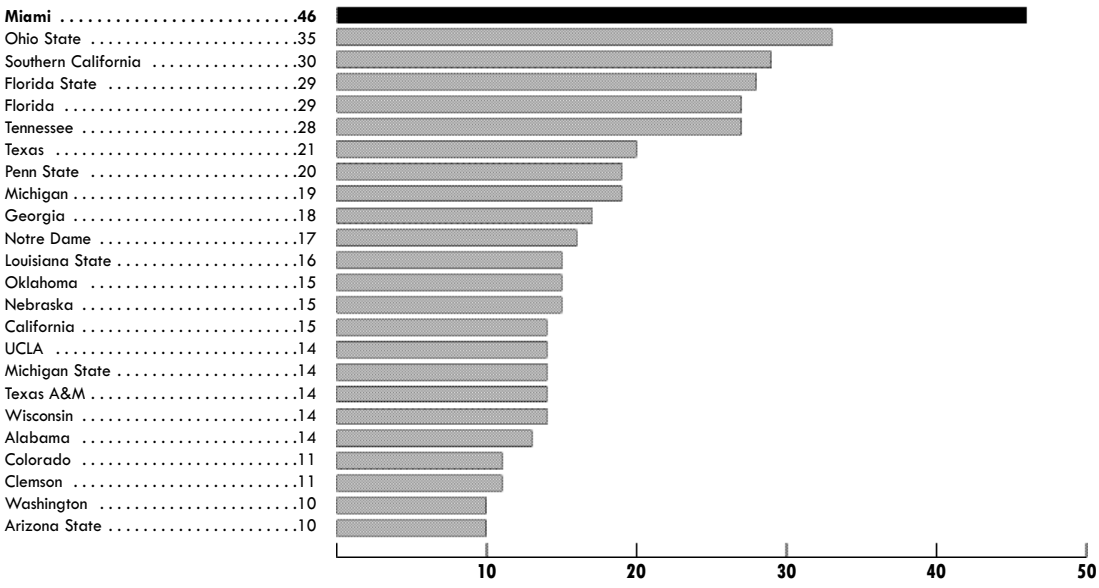
MIAMI IS NO. 1 IN THE FIRST ROUND

Since 1984, the University of Miami has produced more NFL first-round draft picks than any other college, and Miami has had at least one player drafted in the first round in 14 NFL drafts between 1984-2008, the longest streak in NFL history. The following chart illustrates colleges that have turned out the most first-round draft picks since 1984:



Hurricanes in the NFL

More than 270 former Hurricanes have gone on to play in the NFL.

30 Hurricanes have been a part of a Super Bowl winning team and a total of 64 former Canes have played in a Super Bowl.

Four Hurricanes — Jim Kelly, Michael Irvin, Ted Hendricks and Jim Otto — have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

National Champions

Howard Schnellenberger (1983)

Jimmy Johnson (1987)

Dennis Erickson (1989, 1991)

Larry Coker (2001)

Former UM head coach Howard Schnellenberger and Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne shake hands before the 1983 Orange Bowl Classic.

Miami's five national championship trophies.

Miami is one of just five Division I Bowl Subdivision football programs to win at least five national titles (1983, 1987, 1989, 1991 & 2001).

THE 1983 HURRICANES

It was called the miracle in Miami. After discussions of dropping the program arose, the 1983 Miami football team pushed all that talk aside and posted an impressive 11-1 record on its way to stunning top-ranked Nebraska, 31-30, in the 1984 Orange Bowl Classic on New Year's Day. Miami knocked off four teams ranked in the top 15 that season. It was the first time that a national title team didn't have a single player make an All-America first team. The 1983 Hurricanes were also only the second national title team to gain more passing yards than rushing yards as quarterback Bernie Kosar threw for 2,329 yards, completed 61.5 percent and tossed 15 touchdown passes.

THE 1987 HURRICANES

What was supposed to be a rebuilding year for Miami ended in the program's second national title in a five-year span and first undefeated season in school history. Miami dominated from start to finish defeating six schools ranked in the top 20 capping off the season with a 20-14 win over top-ranked Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl Classic. One of the season highlights came in the third game of 1987 when UM trailed No. 4 Florida State, 19-3, late in the third quarter. Miami then scored three lightning-quick touchdowns: a 49-yard bomb from Steve Walsh to Melvin Bratton, a 26-yarder from Walsh to Michael Irvin followed by a two-point conversion tying the game, then a 73-yard strike from Walsh to Irvin with 2:22 left. Miami then stopped an FSU two-point conversion to hold on for a 26-25 victory. UM went on to defeat No. 10 Notre Dame and No. 8 South Carolina before winning the title on its home field against the Sooners.

THE 1989 HURRICANES

Some referred to it as a season of two Ericksons and a tenacious "Defense." UM head coach Dennis Erickson took over following the departure of Jimmy Johnson and in his first season led Miami to its third national title in seven seasons. Miami switched to a one-back offense, but remained in its trademark 4-3 defense which finished the season holding opponents to a 9.3 points per game. The Hurricanes didn't allow a touchdown for a 10-quarter stretch during the regular season and held six opponents without a touchdown. New quarterback Craig Erickson threw for 2,007 yards and 15 touchdowns despite missing three games. UM trounced

Defensive end Julio Cortes makes a tackle for a loss in the 1983 national championship game against Nebraska.

Bernie Kosar quarterbacked Miami to a 31-30 win over Nebraska for the 1983 national championship.

Former UM head coach Larry Coker is presented with the 2001 Rose Bowl Trophy.

National Champions

defending national champion and top-ranked Notre Dame, 27-10, ending the Irish's 23-game win streak to make the seventh season in a row in which UM had defeated a No. 1 ranked team. That win sent Miami to the Sugar Bowl, where it defeated No. 7 Alabama, 33-25. Top-ranked Colorado lost its bowl game to Notre Dame, which in turn gave Miami its third national title.

THE 1991 HURRICANES

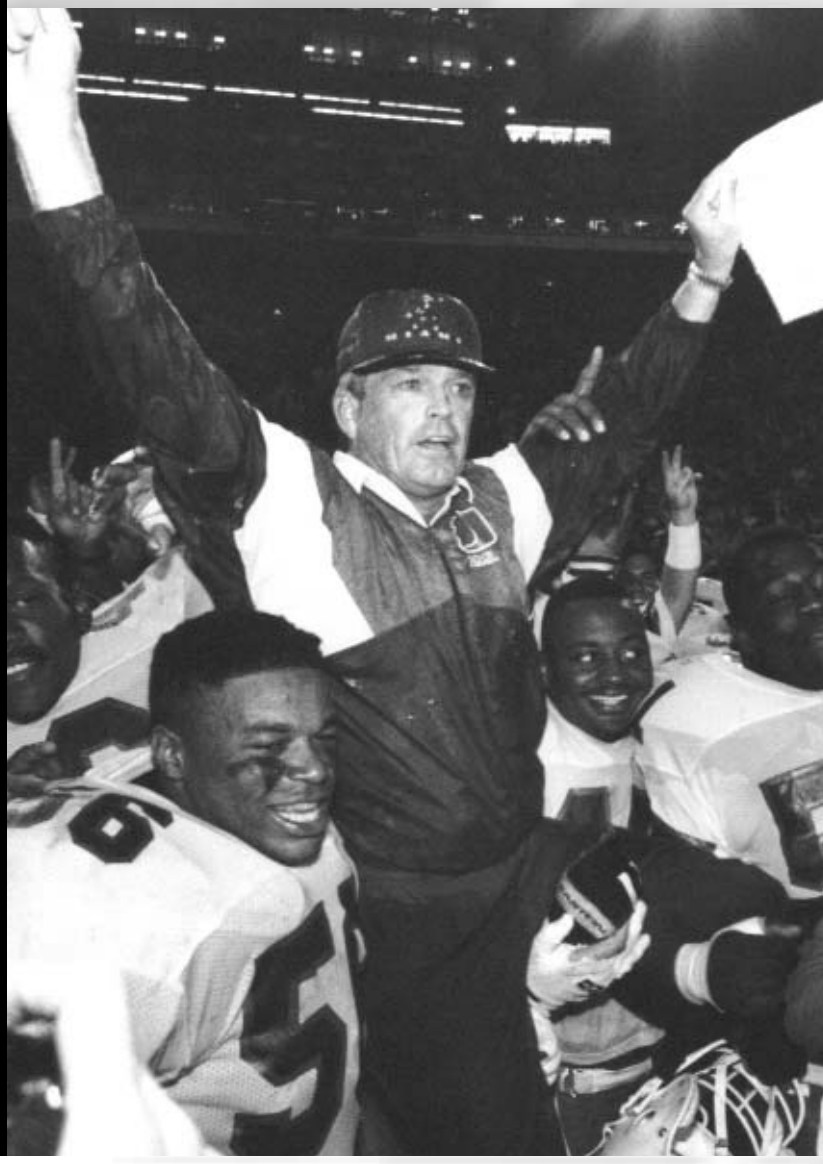
It only took head coach Dennis Erickson two years after his first national title to win another one. Quarterback Gino Torretta, a group of skill players nicknamed "The Ruthless Posse" and a linebacker corps that ranked among the greatest ever assembled, led the Hurricanes to their fourth national title. UM's second perfect season (12-0) ended with a shutout victory over No. 11 Nebraska, 22-0, in the Orange Bowl Classic. A combustible offense, a rock-solid defense and the nation's best special teams, which by 1991 were all traits synonymous with Miami football, led UM to that national title. The Hurricanes defeated a team ranked No. 1 for the eighth time in nine years when rival Florida State went down, 17-16, in Tallahassee in what became known as "Wide Right I." Miami won the national title in the Associated Press rankings, but the Hurricanes shared overall national honors with Rose Bowl champion Washington, which captured the coaches' poll.

THE 2001 HURRICANES

Probably the program's most rewarding title came in 2001, when Miami captured national title No. 5. A veteran senior class that endured the shame of a losing season in 1997 and had rebuilt the program led this team. It was argued that this group of the Hurricanes were the best ever. They beat opponents by the largest average margin in UM history (33.2 points per game), produced the biggest defeats over any pair of ranked teams in history by defeating No. 14 Syracuse and No. 12 Washington by a combined, 124-7, set a new UM record for scoring and featured a defense that scored eight touchdowns and led the nation in pass defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. Seven Hurricanes were named to at least one All-America team's first unit while six players were finalists for national awards, led by Outland Trophy winner Bryant McKinnie at offensive tackle and Maxwell Award winning quarterback Ken Dorsey. It ended with UM's third undefeated season (12-0) as UM routed No. 4 Nebraska, 37-14, to win the Rose Bowl.

Andre Johnson holds up the 2001 Sears National Championship Trophy.

Former UM head coach Dennis Erickson is carried off the field by Micheal Barrow and fellow Hurricanes after Miami won the 1991 national title.



QB Craig Erickson led Miami to a 33-25 win over Alabama in the Sugar Bowl as UM earned its third national title in 1989.

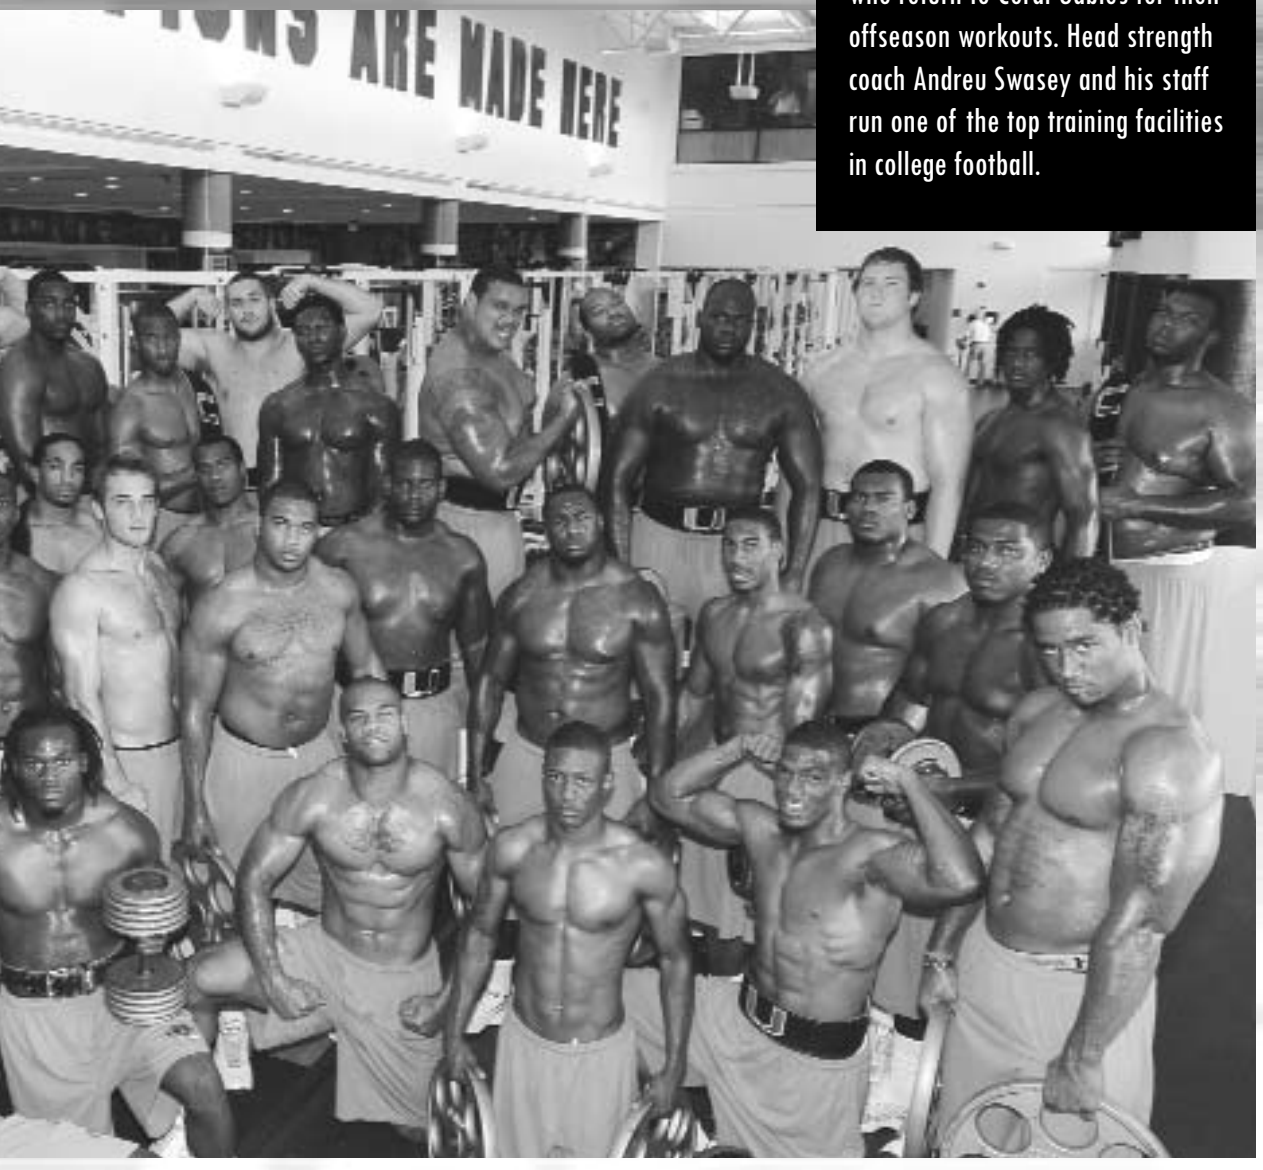
Miami capped off a perfect 12-0 season in 1987 for UM's second national title.

Miami shut out Nebraska, 22-0, on its way to a perfect 12-0 record and the 1991 title.

Strength & Conditioning

- Area: 12,000 square feet
- 44,000 pounds of weights
- 20 custom designed weight lifting stations
- 17 cardio-vascular machines
- Full stretching station
- Dumbbell and rehab station

The crown jewel of the Hecht Athletic Complex is the Hurricane Strength and Conditioning Complex, which underwent renovations in the spring of 2008. The 11,500-square foot facility, which also received an upgrade in 2001, features the latest in strength and conditioning equipment. It provides the focal point of Miami's annual NFL Pro Timing Day each spring, and it is also used by dozens of NFL players who return to Coral Gables for their offseason workouts. Head strength coach Andreu Swasey and his staff run one of the top training facilities in college football.



Football Facilities

The nation's best student-athletes meet, practice and train in the Hecht Athletic Center. The Miami football complex features state-of-the-art meeting and planning rooms, including three large team meeting rooms and eight position group meeting rooms. These rooms are fully equipped with the latest video scouting technology, enabling Hurricane football players to prepare in the best setting available.

The football practice fields are part of the Hecht Athletic Center. The Greentree Practice Fields consist of three full length natural grass fields and are lighted to allow for evening practices. Greentree underwent a $2 million renovation in 1998. In 2007, the practice fields were selected College Football Field of the Year by SportsTurf Managers Association.

The Hecht Athletic Center underwent an $8 million expansion in 2001, a project that also added a players lounge and an outdoor terrace overlooking Greentree Practice Fields; an expansion to the football equipment room; a new office suite for the head coach; locker rooms for women's track, soccer and men's track; and an Olympic sports equipment room.

The University of Miami began The Sprint for Hurricane Athletics campaign in 2007 with a goal of raising more than $70 million to improve and construct new athletic facilities, grow the Hurricane Club Student-Athlete Scholarship Fund and strengthen the Athletic Department endowment. Included in the campaign is a $25 million goal to improve the football facilities, renovate the training room and build a new academic building.

The first stage of construction and renovation on the football offices in the Hecht Athletic Center has been completed. Coaches' offices, conference rooms and team meeting rooms were re-designed, and new offices for the Football Operations and Football Relations departments were also built and furnished. The next renovation project will include the football locker room and a $5 million upgrade to the training room.

One of the most important facility projects to be undertaken by the Athletic Department is the construction of a four-story Academic Building, including a renovated space for the Tom Kearns Hall of Fame. The new building will be a space for student-athletes to pursue their academic dreams and will house computer laboratories, a math and writing center, private study cubicles, study meeting rooms and office space for the academic staff.

The generosity of former football student-athletes and friends of the program has provided funding for the Athletic Department to establish an environment which develops champions n and off the field.

The Edgerrin James Team Meeting Room underwent renovations at the end of last season.

THE HURRICANES
It began in controversy. Some reports say the players on the 1927 football team held a team meeting to select Hurricanes, hoping they would sweep away opponents just as the devastating storm did on September 16, 1926. Another version holds that Jack Bell, a columnist for the old Miami News, asked end Porter Norris of the 1926 team what the team should be called. Told that the local dignitaries and University officials wanted to name the team for a local flora or fauna, Norris said the players wouldn't stand for it and suggested "Hurricanes" since the opening game had been postponed by such a storm.

ORANGE, GREEN AND WHITE
UM's school colors were selected in 1926. The colors of the Florida orange tree represent UM. Orange symbolizes the fruit of the tree, green represents the leaves and white, the blossoms.

THE U
In 1973, UM's Athletic Federation, the fund-raising arm of the athletic department at the time, commissioned a local public relations expert to develop a distinctive logo. The University had gone several years with a variety of helmet and uniform changes and the Federation noted that a number of major colleges have the initials UM. Miami designer Bill Bodenhamer suggested the "U" idea, which lent itself to distinctive logos for each sport as well as slogans like "U gotta believe" and "U is great."

SEBASTIAN THE IBIS
Folklore maintains that the Ibis, a symbol of knowledge found in the Everglades and Egypt, is the last sign of wildlife to take shelter before a hurricane and the first to reappear after the storm. The local marsh bird was considered UM's first unofficial mascot when the school yearbook adopted the name "Ibis" in 1926. Its popularity grew among the students during the 1950s. In 1957, San Sebastian Hall, a residence hall on campus, sponsored an Ibis entry in the homecoming celebration. The next year, student John Stormont performed at games in an Ibis costume that was glued, sewn and pinned together and was the forerunner of today's bird. The Ibis has become one of the most recognizable college mascots in the United States.

THE "SMOKE"
The traditional Hurricane "smoke" entrance in the Orange Bowl began in the 1950s. In an attempt to increase fan interest, UM transportation director Bob Nalette came up with the idea of using fire extinguishers to produce the now-famous smoke that the Hurricanes run through as they enter the field. In his spare time almost 50 years ago, Nalette welded a pipe together that even today billows smoke from the top of the Hurricanes' entrance tunnel. The original setup included flashing lights, two large hurricane flags and a tape of a hurricane being blasted over the loud speaker. The flags and lights are now gone but the smoke and sound track still remain.

CHEERLEADERS
The University of Miami cheerleaders are the catalyst for school spirit. Along with cheering at both home and away athletic contests, the squads are a strong public relations arm for the University. The University of Miami has two squads: Co-Ed and All Girl. Under the direction of coaches Monica and Joe Sanchez, both former Miami cheerleaders, the co-ed cheer squad is consistently rated among the nation's top squads. The All-Girl Squad is under the direction of former Miami cheerleader Beverly Hew.

SUNSATIONS
Now in their 23rd year of entertaining fans, the University of Miami Sunsations dance team is a squad of enthusiastic and talented performers. Their reputation for excellence has grown both locally and nationally. The Sunsations, coached by former member Kristine Stephenson, perform at many charitable and community service events in addition to Hurricane football and basketball games.

BAND OF THE HOUR
The University of Miami Band of the Hour has been in existence since 1933. The Band of the Hour is the largest and most spirited student organization on the UM campus and draws its membership from the entire student body, representing every state and most majors. Along with activities related to Hurricane football, the Band of the Hour has performed in national television variety shows, three major motion pictures, a national television commercial and the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Dublin, Ireland. The 2009-2010 Band of the Hour is led on the field by student drum majors Stephanie Gust, Jeffrey Lawson, and Brad Newman. The Director of the Band of the Hour is Thomas Keck.

FOUR FINGERS
At the beginning of the fourth quarter at every home football game, Miami players and fans can be seen holding up four fingers. The sign indicates their belief that a game is won in that crucial final period. True Hurricane fans and players use the sign as a symbol they own that last quarter.

LIL' JOE AND TOUCHDOWN TOMMY
"Lil' Joe" was a forerunner to the present "Touchdown Tommy" cannon fired by the Sigma Chi fraternity after each UM score.

WAR CANOE TROPHY
An authentic Seminole war canoe, hand carved and painted by Seminole Indians from a 200-year-old Everglades cypress tree felled by lighting, was donated on behalf of the city of Hollywood in 1955 as a trophy for the annual football game between Miami and Florida. The canoe symbolized the magnificent spirit and fighting determination traditional of the independent Florida Seminole tribe that was displayed annually between the Hurricanes and Gators. Today the canoe is on display in UM's Sports Hall of Fame on campus.

Over the last few decades, Miami has become one of the nation's most proven producers of top quarterbacks.

Quarterbacks excel in Miami's balanced pro-style offense. And they not only produce because of the system, they enter the professional ranks more prepared because of it. From Curci to Dorsey, a span of almost 50 years, Miami has consistently produced quarterbacks who have moved on to the next level and succeeded.

Jim Kelly was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2002. Gino Torretta's 2008 induction into the College Football Hall of Fame was the latest testament to the excellence of Miami's quarterbacks through the years. Vinny Testaverde just finished his 23rd year in the National Football League.

Two Heisman Trophy winners. Three Maxwell Award winners. Two Davey O'Brien Award winners. Two Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winners. Five national championships. Those accomplishments only begin to tell the success stories quarterbacks have experienced at the University of Miami.

Running Backs

The great running backs want the ball when the game is on the line. At Miami, running backs get the chance to shine with the nation watching. Their exploits draw the attention of the college football world. Miami's balanced offensive philosophy places an emphasis on spreading the wealth. The running backs get their chance to make a difference.

While the Miami passing game has deservedly developed a national reputation over the last 25 years, it's the running game that has been the key when the Hurricanes have reached the pinnacle of the sport. Running behind an offensive line that traditionally ranks among college football's best, Miami running backs have averaged almost 5.5 yards per carry over the last 10 seasons and have six 1,000-yard seasons in the last 12 years.

The success of Miami's running backs hasn't been lost on NFL scouts as 38 Hurricanes backs have been drafted by professional teams, including 16 since 1984. Miami backs have been first-round selections in the NFL draft 10 times.

Take a look around the NFL and it's easy to find runners from UM. Willis McGahee in Baltimore, Clinton Portis in Washington and Frank Gore in San Francisco are all starting running backs in the league.

In 2002, McGahee burst on the national scene by becoming only the fifth running back in college football history to rush for more than 1,500 yards and score more than 25 touchdowns in the same season on the way to consensus first-team All-America honors and a fourth-place finish in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

Clinton Portis (second-round draft choice of Denver in 2002) went on to earn 2002 AFC Rookie of the Year honors by The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated and NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. McGahee was a first-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 2003.

James, in his 10 NFL seasons, has rushed for 12,121 yards and played in four Pro Bowls. He has seven 1,000 yard rushing seasons.

In 2008, Portis ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,407) while Gore registered his third-straight 1,000 yard season.

No other college can match the running backs that Miami has sent on to the NFL in recent years.

Few schools can match Miami's rich heritage of outstanding wide receivers. Split out wide or set at flanker, Miami receivers flourish in the Hurricanes' offense before taking their talents to the next level. Pro scouts know that Miami produces wide receivers of the highest order. The latest crop of talented receivers includes five wideouts who have been drafted in just this decade alone, not to mention Devin Hester, who was moved to wide receiver by the Chicago Bears.

And that's just a hint of the success Hurricanes pass catchers have achieved over the years.

Thirty-six Hurricanes wide receivers have been NFL draft picks, including seven first-round draft choices. Three UM receivers have earned All-America honors. Miami's balanced offense is built around spreading the wealth. Everyone gets their chance to shine. And every receiver is put in the position to make big plays in the big games.

Recent stars Andre Johnson, Reggie Wayne, Santana Moss and Devin Hester shined in the NFL in 2008. Johnson, a 2003 first-round draft pick and three-time Pro Bowler, tied for the league-lead with 1,427 receiving yards. Wayne ranked 10th in the league with 1,130 receiving yards and was selected to his third Pro Bowl. Moss picked up his third-career 1,000-yard season with 1,044 yards. Hester made the switch to receiver and led the Bears with 580 yards while also gaining 877 yards in total return yards.

If you're a tight end, you want to go to the University of Miami. As Sports Illustrated wrote last spring about Miami's tradition of tight ends: "Top recruits know if they go to Miami they'll be featured in the offense and instantly respected by pro teams. The recent lineage is incredible and there will likely be more to come."

That lineage includes five tight ends currently in the NFL: Jeremy Shockey, Bubba Franks, Kellen Winslow and Greg Olsen. Twelve Miami tight ends have been drafted by NFL teams, including four first-round selections since 2000 (Franks, Shockey, Winslow and Olsen). Three Hurricanes tight ends have been named All-America.

The guys in the trenches make all the glitz and glamour of Miami's spectacular offensive success possible, and the Hurricanes consistently have one of college football's finest offensive lines. They make the Miami offensive machine go. The little school in Coral Gables has been an assembly line for offensive linemen for 60 years. Never has it been as productive as in recent seasons.

Miami's offensive lines in this decade rank among the best ever assembled. Over the span of the last seven seasons, the offensive line made way for a 76-23 record while allowing a phenomenally low number of sacks. In fact, the starting unit allowed just eight sacks in 2002, three sacks in 2001 and only two during the 2000 season. Spearheading the unit was a pair of two-time All-America tackles in Bryant McKinnie and Joaquin Gonzalez and an All-America center in Brett Romberg. McKinnie became the first Miami player to win the coveted Outland Trophy in 2001. In 2002, Romberg won the Dave Rimington Award as college football's best center.

The latest All-American was Eric Winston in 2005. A tight end who was converted to offensive tackle, Winston came back from a serious knee injury to become one of college football's top linemen in 2005.

Miami's recent offensive lines have set a new standard of excellence for others to follow. But those Hurricanes were already following a rich tradition of Hurricanes linemen that dates back to the 1940s.

More than 40 Hurricanes offensive linemen have been drafted, including four first-round selections. McKinnie, Martin Bibla and Gonzalez were chosen in the 2002 NFL Draft; Vernon Carey was a first-round choice in 2004; Chris Myers was selected in 2005; and Eric Winston was drafted in 2006.

Defensive Line

For a long time now, "Quarterback U." has been making a name for itself on another front: The Defensive Front.

Miami's defensive line has produced an Outland Trophy winner (Russell Maryland, 1990); a Lombardi Award winner (Warren Sapp, 1994); a Knute Rockne Award winner (Ted Hendricks, 1968); nine All-Americans since 1986 and 24 All-Americans overall. Miami has also produced three other Outland Trophy finalists, three other Lombardi Award finalists, one Hendricks Award finalist, and even a Heisman Trophy finalist (Sapp, who placed sixth in the voting in 1994).

Several schools tout themselves as "Linebacker U." While many schools can make a good argument, there's no disputing the record of success University of Miami linebackers have built. And that's why Sports Illustrated has called Miami "the new Linebacker U."

Since 1982, 21 Miami linebackers have been NFL draft picks, including first-round choices Ray Lewis (Baltimore Ravens, 1996), Dan Morgan (Carolina Panthers, 2001), Jonathan Vilma (New York Jets, 2004), D.J. Williams (Denver Broncos, 2004) and Jon Beason (Carolina Panthers, 2007). Four times Miami linebackers have been finalists for the prestigious Butkus Award, with Morgan winning the coveted trophy in 2000 as part of a season in which the star middle linebacker swept all three major defensive awards (Butkus, Bednarik and Nagurski awards).

Miami has long been known for its great quarterbacks, but the Hurricanes' sustained success over the years has had just as much to do with outstanding defensive play as with the excellence of its offense. The school known as "Quarterback U" in football circles actually has an even stronger tradition of producing top linebackers.

This has been particularly evident over the last 25 years, as eight first-team All-America linebackers have come from Miami and 22 Hurricanes linebackers have been taken in the NFL draft since 1982, including five first-round draftees. Jon Beason was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round of the 2007 draft.

Miami linebackers have been at the forefront of the evolution of college defenses from large, pounding squads into disruptive units built around speed, pressure and opportunism.

Miami is known not just as "The U." It's also known as "Linebacker U."

Defensive Backs

The Hurricanes have been a consistent producer of big-time defensive backs, players who have thrived in Miami's aggressive 4-3 defense for decades. Twelve Hurricanes defensive backs have earned All-America status, but many others have compiled standout college performances that have led to productive NFL careers.

In 1966, Tom Beier became Miami's first All-American defensive back of the modern era, but Beier was just the start of a trend that continues to the present day. Such players as former NFL great Burgess Owens (1970-72), Fred Marion (1978-81), 1987 Thorpe Award winner Bennie Blades (1984-87) and Ryan McNeil (1989-92) also flourished at UM. In 2006, Bennie Blades was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The 2001 secondary may rank among the finest in collegiate history, as all four starters – safeties Ed Reed and James Lewis and cornerbacks Mike Rumph and Phillip Buchanon – were selected in the 2002 NFL draft, with Buchanon, Reed and Rumph going in the first round. In 2004, UM sent touted free safety Sean Taylor to the Washington Redskins with the fifth pick of the draft, and 2005 saw Antrel Rolle get selected in the first round by the Arizona Cardinals. In 2006, three Miami cornerbacks were drafted: Kelly Jennings (first round, Seattle), Devin Hester (second round, Chicago), and Marcus Maxey (fifth round, Kansas City). In 2007, safety Brandon Meriweather was taken in the first round by the New England Patriots and in 2008, safety Kenny Phillips went in the first round to the New York Giants.

The Miami defensive scheme creates a harvest of opportunities for defensive backs with a ball-hawking mentality. The Hurricanes have a proven tradition of attracting the best and preparing them for collegiate championships and a chance in the NFL. The record speaks for itself. A whopping 41 professional draftees, including 25 since 1988 – more than one draft choice per year – and 12 first-round NFL draft picks. At least two Miami defensive backs have been chosen in the same draft a total of eight times.

For defensive backs, Miami is the pathway to greatness.

The Bears' Devin Hester returned the opening kickoff of Super Bowl XLI for a touchdown

Game-breaking punt returns. Game-changing blocked kicks. Big plays that turn games – and seasons – around. Outstanding special teams play has become as much of a tradition at the University of Miami as winning national championships.

Want more proof? Just go back and watch the first play of Super Bowl XLI, when Devin Hester ran back the opening kickoff for a touchdown. As a rookie in 2007, Hester set an NFL record with six touchdowns on returns.

Since 1995, the Hurricanes have blocked 48 kicks or punts. Over the last seven seasons, Miami has returned punts for touchdowns a whopping 17 times!

In addition to Hester, some of the greatest return men in college football history have plied their skills at Miami: Phillip Buchanon, Santana Moss, Daryl Jones, Kevin Williams, Wesley Carroll, Darryl Spencer, Tremain Mack, Roscoe Parrish and Randal Hill. The Hurricanes annually rank among the nation's best in kickoff returns and punt returns.

Several names that rank among the finest placekickers in college history played for the Hurricanes: Carlos Huerta, Greg Cox, Danny Miller, Dane Prewitt, 2001 All-American Todd Sievers and Jon Peattie.

No small factor in the success of the Hurricanes has been consistent excellence at punter. Players such as Rick Tuten, Jeff Feagles, Pat Barrett, Harry Ghaul and Freddie Capshaw have established a tradition of a punting game that can pin opponents deep and allows for the Hurricanes defense to set up scoring opportunities for the offense.

Simply put, the Miami Hurricanes has been known for some of the best special teams performers at the college level and in the Pros.

Walk-On Wonders

The University of Miami is the ideal place for football players to walk on and become an integral part of a team. Many walk-ons go on to eventually earn athletic scholarships, but all have the opportunity to become a part of a football program rich in tradition while attending an educational institution with an outstanding reputation for higher learning. Beginning in the early 1980s, when the Hurricanes began their run of five national championships, and continuing under head coach Randy Shannon, walk-ons have always played a part in the program's success.

Carlos Huerta (1988-91) is just one of the numerous former UM walk-ons to garner honors at the college level and move on to pro football. Huerta, the starting placekicker on UM's 1991 national championship team, emerged to become a consensus All-American.

In 1998, walk-on offensive lineman Joaquin Gonzalez was placed on scholarship. Gonzalez, who had an academic scholarship to attend UM, went on to become the first offensive lineman in Big East history to be named Rookie of the Year. Earning Big East All-Academic honors four times in his career, Gonzalez was named a first-team All-America by the Football Writers Association in 2000 and 2001, and was the 2001 Draddy Award winner (Academic Heisman) recognizing college football's top student-athlete.

Junior College Success

Each year, the University of Miami football program looks to junior colleges across the country in search of veteran players ready to step into key roles with the Hurricanes. Nearly every season since 1980, a junior college graduate has lined up for the Hurricanes. Whether being recruited or walking on, a scholarship can be obtained for those junior college players displaying the necessary skills to play at the University of Miami.

"The University of Miami has a long-standing tradition of finding junior college players who have helped us win national championships," says head coach Randy Shannon. "We will continue to look for quality players at the junior college level across America."

From the days in the early 1980s, when the Hurricanes claimed their first of five national championships, junior college players have been important members of UM teams.

The tradition of JUCO success at Miami continues with Shannon as head coach. Wide receiver Kayne Farquharson transferred in 2007 from El Camino Junior College in California. UM added fullback Patrick Hill from El Camino Junior College in California in 2008.

Wide receiver Lance Leggett was the 2006 ACC outdoor champion in the 400-meter hurdles and an All-ACC honoree in 2007

A list of the greatest football players in Miami history closely resembles a listing of UM track and field greats. That's not just a coincidence. At Miami, the dual-sport athlete is appreciated and coveted.

Miami football players have proven themselves as forces to be reckoned with in track and field. In 13 seasons of BIG EAST competition, UM gridders won 31 conference titles, including 12 indoor titles and 19 outdoor titles, while setting four conference records. Miami football players still hold seven UM indoor records and eight UM outdoor marks in the BIG EAST. Now in the Atlantic Coast Conference, UM football players, led by wide receiver Lance Leggett, have proved strong contenders in both the ACC indoor and outdoor championships.

Hurricanes football players have asserted dominance in track since Bennie Blades set the UM indoor record in the 300 meters in 1985. UM's first football/track superstar was All-American receiver Horace Copeland, the 1992 BIG EAST Most Outstanding Performer after winning the long jump, 100-meters, and 4x100-meter relay at the conference meet. He went on to become the first UM track athlete to earn All-America honors.

All-American wide receiver Santana Moss became the second Hurricane to be named BIG EAST Most Outstanding Field Performer after winning both the long jump and the triple jump at the 2000 outdoor meet. Also in 2000, Aaron Moser won his third consecutive decathlon title and went on to become the second Miami football player to earn All-America honors in track and field.

In recent years, All-America safety Ed Reed won the 1999 BIG EAST title in the javelin, receiver Andre Johnson won 2002 titles in the indoor 60 meters and the outdoor 100-meter dash, and wide receiver Terrell Walden won the 2003 Big East indoor 60-meter dash title and the outdoor 100 crown. At the 2004 indoor championships, wide receiver Devin Hester won the long jump and defensive back Tanard Davis captured the 60-meter title.

In 2006, wide receiver Lance Leggett was the ACC 400-meter outdoor hurdles champion, and he placed second in the 110-meter hurdles. In the ACC Indoor Championships, Leggett was also second in the ACC indoor 60-meter hurdles. In 2007, he earned All-ACC honors.

Wide receivers Travis Benjamin, Davon Johnson, Devon Hill, defensive backs DeMarcus Van Dyke, Brandon Harris, Corey Nelms and running backs Damien Berry and Graig Cooper along with defensive tackle Micanor Regis have competed most recently in football and track.

Now a star receiver in the NFL, Andre Johnson won BIG EAST dash titles during his UM days

RANDY SHANNON

HEAD COACH

When you think of college football over the last quarter century, you think of the Miami Hurricanes. And when you think of the Miami Hurricanes, you think of Randy Shannon.

Going into his third season at the helm of his alma mater's program in 2009, Shannon is coming off a season where he guided the Hurricanes to the program's 34th overall bowl appearance at the 2008 Emerald Bowl. Miami finished the 2008 season 7-6 and 4-4 in the Atlantic Coast Conference, which was just one game out of first place in the league.

Coach Shannon greets former UM defensive tackle Dwayne Johnson -- a.k.a. The Rock -- at commencement ceremonies in May 2007

In 2008, Shannon's squad had a five-game winning streak, which was the longest for the Hurricanes since 2005. Freshman linebacker Sean Spence was named the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and kicker Matt Bosher was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's best kicker. Four freshmen - LB Sean Spence, DT Marcus Forston, DE Marcus Robinson, PR/KR Travis Benjamin - earned freshman All-America honors. Miami also ranked No. 7 nationally in pass defense, 25th in tackles for loss and 28th overall in total defense yielding 317.56 yards per game. The 2008 Hurricanes also were among top teams in the ACC in punt returns (first), pass defense (second), scoring offense (third), net punting (fourth) and tackles for loss (fourth).

Off the field, the team again posted one of the best NCAA Academic Progress Rates (APR) nationally. UM had an APR of 977, which was the 7th-highest rate in the country out of 119 Bowl-Subdivision football programs. It also was the second highest in the Atlantic Coast Conference and highest among all schools in Florida.

Shannon was named head football coach of the University of Miami on December 8, 2006, following six seasons serving as the team's defensive coordinator. He coached top 10 defenses in five of those six seasons.

A native of Miami, a former Hurricanes player and a graduate of the University, Shannon played on or was a coach for three of the school's five national championship teams. He played for the Hurricanes from 1985 through 1988 and had been an assistant coach for 13 seasons before being named the 20th head coach in school history.

Shannon coached Miami to a 31-3 win over Marshall in his head coaching debut on Sept 1, 2007. The Hurricanes went on to finish 5-7 and 2-6 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. His Hurricanes showed promise for the future of the program.

Shannon's 2007 team upheld UM's academic success off the field. The UM football team achieved a NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 969, which was the 8th-highest rate in the country out of 119 Bowl-Subdivision football programs.

Miami's 2008 signing class ranked as the top class in the country by ESPN.com. The 2009 signing class ranked in the top 10 nationally as Miami signed six players ranked in the ESPN.com Top 150.

"Randy Shannon is Miami - tough, disciplined, smart, caring, passionate, enthusiastic, and no-nonsense," said University of Miami President Donna E. Shalala. "He has been preparing himself for a head coaching position his whole life and I am very happy that the opportunity came at the University of Miami, his alma mater."

In his six seasons as defensive coordinator, the Hurricanes had seven All-America players (and he tutored eight other All-Americans as a position coach). As a head coach and defensive coordinator, he's coached 14 defensive players who were selected in the first round of the NFL draft. As a player, Shannon was a member of five teams that went to bowl games (including one as a redshirt freshman). He has coached in 12 bowl games.

"This is my dream job. It always has been," Shannon said. "This program is not at a standstill. The program is not on a downslide. We are on an upward movement. As a coach, you want a challenge. I want somebody to say that I can't do it. If I hear 'I can't,' I'm going to prove you wrong. Nobody can ever tell you that you cannot achieve what you want. That's what I believe in.

"I want to make sure everyone understands that we will get it done at the University of Miami," Shannon continued. "We're not a program that's going to stand still. You never stay the same in life. You always go up and down. You try to get better every year, every day, every week, every second."

Randy Shannon was awarded the Orange Bowl Keith Tribble Trailblazer Award at the Orange Bowl Committee's 7th annual Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida Field of Dreams Scholarship Benefit in May 2009.

- Led the nation's No. 1-ranked defense in pass defense and pass efficiency defense during the 2002 season
- Led the nation's No. 1-ranked defense in turnover margin, scoring defense and pass efficiency defense during Miami's 2001 national championship season
- 2001 defense set a school record for takeaways (45) and interceptions (27)
- Developed the linebacker corps of one of the NFL's top defenses with the 2000 Miami Dolphins
- Sixteen seasons as a collegiate coach, along with three years in the NFL
- Has coached 15 first-team All-Americans and 17 players who were selected in the first round of the NFL draft

Shannon attended Miami's Norland High School and earned all-state and honorable mention All-America recognition from Street & Smith's as a senior linebacker at Norland. He also lettered in basketball, averaging 19 points a game, and he competed in the triple jump on the track and field team.

As a player at Miami, Shannon was a four-year letterman at linebacker and the starter on the 1987 national championship team. He received the Christopher Plumer Award for most inspirational player as a senior in 1988. He was described by his coaches as "a coach on the field." Shannon concluded his career in 1988 when he ranked fourth on the team in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss, while leading the team in passes broken up and forced fumbles.

An 11th-round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1989, he became the first rookie to start at outside linebacker for Dallas since 1963 and was also a standout on special teams. Shannon played for the Cowboys for two seasons before going into coaching.

He was a graduate assistant in 1991 when the Hurricanes won their fourth national championship. In 1992 he became a full-time assistant coach working with the defensive line, and from 1993-97 he coached the team's linebackers. He was a defensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 1998 and 1999 before assuming the role of linebackers coach in 2000.

Shannon returned to his alma mater in 2001 as defensive coordinator. That year, the Miami Hurricanes won their fifth national championship and he became the first UM coach to be named the winner of the Frank Broyles Award, presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Shannon has produced defenses that rank among the best in the history of the program. Despite a 7-6 record in 2006, the defense ranked seventh in the country in total defense (allowing only 255.5 yards per game), fourth in rushing defense (a team-record 67.9 yards a game) and 13th in scoring defense (15.5).

In 2005, Shannon's aggressive 4-3 scheme led the nation most of the season in nearly every category and finished No. 1 in pass defense (152.17 ypg) and pass efficiency (89.48 rating), fourth in total defense (270.08 ypg) and scoring defense (14.25 points), and 23rd in run defense (117.92). He was named Defensive Coordinator of the Year by Rivals.com.

In 2004, Shannon's defense ranked ninth in the country in pass defense despite having three new starters in the secondary. The UM defenses in 2002 and 2003 led the nation in fewest passing yards allowed, and the 2003 unit was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense (96.16 rating), while finishing second in the nation in total defense (257.5 ypg). The 2003 Hurricanes also ranked among the national leaders in scoring defense (fourth, 15.1 ppg).

"It was such a great experience. I saw 19-, 20-, 21-year-olds do various jobs and do it with perfection. You get amazed, because I'm coaching 19-, 20-, 21-year-olds in football and it's the same type of thing. You want perfection. I'm happy to be an American. And I'm happy that those 19- and 20-year-olds are, what I call, helping run the country. Because without all of our soldiers' protection, we wouldn't have protection."

— Head Coach Randy Shannon
on his trip to the Middle East in May of 2008

His 2002 unit led the nation in passing yards allowed (119.7 ypg) and in pass efficiency defense (83.91 rating), while finishing seventh in the nation in total defense (285.0 ypg), all of which was accomplished with an entirely new starting unit in the defensive secondary.

In 2001, Miami led the nation in turnover margin by forcing a school-record 27 interceptions and 45 turnovers. Miami defenders allowed a national-best 9.4 points per game, led the nation in pass efficiency defense (75.60 rating), ranked second in pass defense (138.2 ypg) and was sixth in total defense (270.9 ypg). The 2001 Hurricanes allowed just 12 touchdowns (seven rushing, five passing) and scored seven touchdowns of their own. Shannon's defenses have been ranked in the top 10 in turnover margin twice and led the nation in 2001.

It's no wonder Shannon has been successful as a coach. As a linebacker during the late 1980s, he was a film room guru, studying hours and hours of tape to learn the offensive tendencies of the opponents he faced each Saturday on the football field. His commitment to being a student of the game often paid huge dividends, such as on Sept. 5, 1987, in the Orange Bowl, when he returned an interception 41

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT RANDY SHANNON:

COACHES:

"THE NO. 1 THING ABOUT RANDY IS THAT HE KEEPS EVERYTHING IN PERSPECTIVE. HE'S INTELLIGENT, DEDICATED AND EVEN-KEELED. HE DOES NOT HAVE HIGHS AND LOWS. HIS BACKGROUND, WHERE HE CAME FROM, ALLOWS HIM TO KEEP EVERYTHING IN PERSPECTIVE. I WAS ECSTATIC WHEN I HEARD HE'D BE THE HEAD COACH. HE'LL BE OUTSTANDING. HE'S EXACTLY WHAT THE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI NEEDS. HE'S ORGANIZED. HE RECRUITS WELL. HE'S AN OUTSTANDING COACH. HE'S A PERFECT FIT."

- JIMMY JOHNSON, HURRICANES HEAD COACH 1984-88

PLAYERS:

"RANDY WAS ONE OF THE SMARTEST FOOTBALL PLAYERS I HAVE EVER KNOWN. HE UNDERSTANDS THE GAME AND HE UNDERSTANDS PLAYERS. HE HAS AN INSTINCTIVE FEEL FOR ALL THAT IS INVOLVED IN BEING A WINNER. THE PROGRAM IS IN GOOD HANDS, BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS IN HIS HEART. HE WILL TEACH HIS PLAYERS WHAT THE MIAMI SPIRIT IS ABOUT. HE UNDERSTANDS THAT IT IS A PRIVILEGE TO PLAY AT MIAMI, AND WITH THAT PRIVILEGE COMES A RESPONSIBILITY TO UPHOLD THE SUCCESS AND PRIDE OF THOSE WHO CAME BEFORE, THOSE WHO ARE THERE NOW, AND THOSE WHO WILL FOLLOW."

- MICHAEL IRVIN, MEMBER OF PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME, COLLEGIATE NATIONAL CHAMPION AND SUPER BOWL CHAMPION

"RANDY WAS A COACH ON THE FIELD. HE GOT THE DEFENSIVE PLAYERS IN LINE. I REMEMBER RANDY AS A LINEBACKER DURING SPRING DRILLS UNDER JIMMY JOHNSON AND I WAS A YOUNG FRESHMAN DOING EVERYTHING FULL SPEED, AND HE SAID, 'HEY GINO, THERE'S A LOT OF TIME LEFT. MAKE SURE YOU PACE YOURSELF.' HE WAS ALWAYS TRYING TO TEACH THE GAME. NOT ONLY IS HE A TEACHER, BUT HE'S ALWAYS TRYING TO LEARN AND IMPROVE HIMSELF."

- GINO TORRETTA, 1991 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER AND NATIONAL CHAMPION

"RANDY IS VERY EVEN-MANNERED. BUT HE'S ALWAYS BEEN A SMART, SAVVY PERSON, AND HE BRINGS THOSE ATTRIBUTES TO HIS POSITION AS HEAD COACH. I KNOW THE LOVE HE HAS FOR THE TEAM AND THE UNIVERSITY. HE HAS PAID HIS DUES AND HE WAS READY. I REMEMBER OUR PLAYING DAYS AND GUYS WOULD BE DOWN AND JIMMY JOHNSON WOULD BE BEATING DOWN ON US AND COACH WANNSTEDT WOULD BE GETTING AFTER US, AND RANDY WOULD DO SOMETHING FUNNY. HE SAID IT WAS TO TAKE HIS MIND OFF THE DOG DAYS OF PRACTICE, BUT IT DID SOMETHING FOR US, TOO. THAT'S HOW HE'LL BE AS COACH - SERIOUS BUT HE ALSO LIKES TO HAVE FUN."

- RUSSELL MARYLAND, NO. 1 OVERALL NFL DRAFT CHOICE 1991

Randy Shannon was one of five college football coaches to participate in a seven-day Middle East tour during May of 2008. The tour was a joint effort of Morale Entertainment and Armed Forces Entertainment. Joining Coach Shannon on the trip were Mark Richt of Georgia, Tommy Tuberville from Auburn, Yale University's Jack Siedlecki and Charlie Weis of Notre Dame. The tour was a first-of-its-kind for NCAA football and for Armed Forces Entertainment.

yards for a touchdown in the Hurricanes' 31-4 romp over the Florida Gators. But his studious approach to game preparation wasn't limited solely to the gridiron. Shannon was a true student-athlete, graduating with a degree in liberal arts. "It was about more than just the X's and O's," Shannon said. "I wanted to grow intellectually, and I knew that academics were a key to success."

Many of Shannon's players have gone on to star in the NFL. But it is not the superstar success his players have achieved as professional athletes of which Shannon is most proud. "I'm excited for them because they've earned their college degrees," he says. "Football is your life when you're playing, but when it's over and you sit down and realize that there are no more cheers from the crowds, you realize how special academics really are."

The University of Miami, Shannon says, "is not a football factory. We're an academic institution that does a tremendous job in educating student-athletes and preparing them for life after sports."

Shannon is known for his quiet yet strong demeanor. He works with great intensity and dedication. His pride in his alma mater is always paramount. "Once you're a part of the University of Miami, you'll always bleed orange and green. You never forget those experiences as a player or coach, because they'll always be a part of your life," Shannon says.

Shannon brims with confidence that is supported by a lifetime of success. "We're going to do a lot of great things here for the community, for the school, and for the football program," he says. "We're going to have accountability, discipline, and a lot of emotion to do the right things. Being at Miami, the expectations are always high. Players come to Miami because they know they will always have an opportunity to win the national championship. If you settle for less, you're going to become less. We're going to have a lot of fun. And we're going to win."

Mark Whipple is in his first season as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Miami. He was named to his position on January 24, 2009.

A veteran of 27 seasons as a coach on both the collegiate and professional levels, Whipple inherits a unit that returns nine starters, an experienced young quarterback, one of the top running back tandems in the Atlantic Coast Conference, a talented group of receivers and an offensive line that returns three starters. He will also serve as the quarterbacks coach.

Whipple spent the 2008 season as an offensive assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles, helping the team to an appearance in the NFC championship game. Before joining the Eagles, he served as the quarterbacks coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2004-06 where he was instrumental in the development of Ben Roethlisberger, who became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl as a rookie. In 2004, Roethlisberger became the first NFL quarterback to finish a season undefeated with a 13-0 record in games he started.

Prior to his move to the NFL, Whipple spent 16 seasons as a head coach at the collegiate level compiling an overall record of 121-59 (.672) with stops at the University of Massachusetts, Brown and New Haven.

While at UMass, he posted a 49-26 (.653) record in six years (1998-2003) leading the Minutemen to a Division I-AA National Championship in his first season with the team in 1998, posting a school record 12 wins. He also won a pair of conference championships. He was named National Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and Don Hansen's National Weekly Football Gazette in 1998 and earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors in 2003. He was selected as the New England Coach of the Year by the New England Football Writers and the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston in both 1998 and 2003. He posted five winning seasons in only six years as head coach, with nine different players earning first team All-America honors.

Whipple also served as a head coach at his alma mater Brown from 1994-97, where he accumulated a 24-16 (.600) record without a losing season. He also was the head coach at New Haven from 1988-93 where he went an impressive 48-17 (.738) and led the team to back-to-back NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 1992 and 1993. His 1992 team finished 12-1 and ranked No. 5 nationally, while his 1993 squad ranked as high as No. 2 nationally.

At every stop in college, the trademark of a Whipple-coached team was a high-powered offense. His UMass teams rewrote the record books, setting more than 40 team records. In 1998, his national championship team posted school records in points scored (524), touchdowns (73), total yards (7,074), passing yards (4,050), completions (306) and first downs (354). While at Brown, his 1997 squad set Ivy League and school records for total offense (474.3 yards per game), which included a single-game record of 629 yards against Yale. His 1995 team set several single-season records, including most points (282), total offense (4,165 yards), passing offense (2,502 yards) and first downs (227). At New Haven, his 1992 squad led all NCAA divisions in scoring offense (50.5 points per game) and total offense (587.7 yards per game). His 1993 New Haven team was named Sports Illustrated's "Best Offense in College Football", averaging 52.5 points and 557.6 yards of total offense per game.

Austin, Mark, Brenda and Spencer Whipple

The Tarrytown, N.Y., native's coaching career began in 1980 as an assistant at St. Lawrence University. Whipple made four more stops over the next seven years (Union College, 1981-82; Brown, 1983; Arizona Wranglers of the USFL, 1984; New Hampshire, 1986-87) before landing his first head coaching appointment.

A 1979 graduate of Brown, he was the Bears starting quarterback from 1977-78, leading the team to a 13-5 record as a starter. He was inducted into the Brown Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996. Whipple earned a bachelor's degree in political science. He was a member of the school's first-ever Ivy League championship team in 1976. He was also a four-year letterman on the Bears baseball team.

He and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Spencer, a quarterback on the UMass football team, and Austin, a high school sophomore.

JOHN LOVETT

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

John Lovett is in his first year as defensive coordinator at the University of Miami. A veteran coach with 18 years of experience as a defensive coordinator with stops at Clemson, Auburn and Mississippi, Lovett inherits a unit that returns 15 players with starting experience, including three Freshman All-Americans.

Lovett spent the last two seasons as the special teams coordinator and a defensive assistant at North Carolina, where the kickoff coverage unit ranked among the nation's top 15 and the Tar Heels blocked six kicks in 2008. He coached the NCAA all-time leader in combined kick return yards in Brandon Tate, who also established the ACC career mark for kickoff return yards. Kicker Connor Barth set the school career mark for field goals.

Jim and Carol Lovett

Prior to going to North Carolina, Lovett was the defensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 2005-06. In addition to coordinating the defense at Bowling Green, Lovett coached linebackers in 2005 and defensive backs in 2006. In his first year with the Falcons, Lovett's defense ranked 20th in the country in turnover margin.

Lovett served as the defensive coordinator at Clemson from 2002-04, and helped develop one of the ACC's top defenses, while defensive backs Justin Miller and Brian Mance earned All-America honors. In 2004, Clemson was 11th in the nation in pass defense efficiency (103.4) and 26th in total defense (327.3). In 2003, his defense allowed just 19.2 points per game as Clemson finished the year with nine wins and a top 25 national ranking.

As the defensive coordinator at Auburn from 1999-2001, Lovett helped lead the Tigers to bowl games each of his last two years including an appearance in the 2001 Peach Bowl.

Lovett coached the secondary all four years he was at Ole Miss (1995-98), including the 1997 season when the Rebels had an 8-4 overall record, including a victory in the Motor City Bowl.

Prior to coaching at Mississippi, Lovett worked as defensive coordinator at the University of Maine for two stints. He first went to Orono in 1985 and served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1985-88, and then returned in 1994 to serve as defensive coordinator for the Black Bears. The 1987 team won the conference championship and qualified for the Division I-AA playoffs.

Lovett began his career in coaching at Saint Joseph's Region High School in Montvale, N.J., in 1976. He started his college career in 1978 at Union College in New York, where he worked until 1982. Lovett spent the 1983 season in the Ivy League at Brown, and then moved back to New York to work under Joe Walton as the New York Jets' defensive quality control coach in 1984. In 1989, he joined head coach Tim Murphy at the University of Cincinnati, where he remained until 1992. In 1993, he coached at UNLV as the secondary coach.

Lovett graduated from C.W. Post College in December of 1973 and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in fall 2008. He initially was a walk-on, but quickly earned a scholarship and served as the team's co-captain as a senior in 1973. He played for Dom Anile, who is now a Consultant to Player Personnel for the Indianapolis Colts. At the completion of his career, he enrolled in graduate school at the University of Denver and he earned his Master's Degree in 1975. The next year he entered the coaching profession.

He and his wife Carol reside in Miami.

Joe Pannunzio is in his fourth season as the Hurricanes' tight ends coach and special teams coordinator.

In 2008, Pannunzio coached one of the best kickers in the country in Matt Bosher. Bosher earned Second Team All-ACC honors and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, given to the nation's top kicker. In 2009, Bosher will return as the nation's leader in field goal percentage as he connected on 90 percent (18-of-20) of his field goals. Bosher also earned second team All-ACC honors as a punter as Miami's punt team ranked fourth in the ACC in net punting. Pannunzio also coached Miami's third leading receiver in tight end Dedrick Epps who caught 22 passes for 304 yards. Epps became the first Hurricane tight end with a 100-yard receiving performance since Greg Olsen did it in 2005.

Miami's return game also thrived in 2008 with Freshman All-American Travis Benjamin, who led the ACC in punt returns averaging 11.3 yards per return. As a team, Miami led the ACC and ranked in the top 30 nationally in punt returns.

In 2007, Pannunzio worked with a young group of tight ends which combined for five of Miami's 16 touchdown receptions.

In his first season in 2006, he tutored tight end Greg Olsen, who was selected by the Chicago Bears in the first round of the 2007 NFL draft. Pannunzio also did a fine job coaching UM's special teams units. Both the punt return (27th) and kickoff return (55th) coverage units ranked in the top half of Division I-A in 2006.

Pannunzio was the head coach at Murray State from 2000 to 2005 and was one of the most highly regarded tight ends/special teams coaches in the country during earlier stints at TCU, Minnesota, Mississippi and Auburn.

Pannunzio has coached for the last 27 years in college football, steadily rising the ranks from a star player at Southern Colorado to head coach. In his six years as head coach at Murray State, his teams finished 30-37 and won one Ohio Valley Conference title and advanced to the playoffs one time.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Pannunzio spent five years working for Tommy Tuberville at Mississippi and Auburn. Before that, he spent four years under Jim Wacker at TCU and Minnesota. He also coached for seven years at Mesa (Colo.) College, where the team appeared in the NAIA national championship game twice and led the nation in total offense and scoring one time. His two stints at Mesa wrapped around two years at Kansas, where he worked under Mike Gottfried.

A native of Pueblo, Colo., Pannunzio was a standout quarterback at Southern Colorado, where he graduated with a degree in physical education in 1982. He was named honorable mention all-conference and in 1980, led his team to a No. 9 ranking in NAIA Division I. He and his wife, Rita, have two daughters, Angela and Nico and a son, Mario.

Clint Hurtt enters his third season as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater.

Hurtt has quickly proven to be one of the top young recruiters in college football as he has signed the top class in the Atlantic Coast Conference the last two seasons. Behind his guidance and efforts, Miami's 2008 signing class ranked No. 1 in the country by ESPN.com as he coordinated the recruiting efforts. The Hurricanes' 2009 class ranked in the top 10 as Miami signed six players ranked in the ESPN.com Top 150.

Clint, Tanisha and Taylor Destinee Hurtt

Hurtt coached some of the top young defensive line talent in the country in 2008. Freshmen Marcus Robinson and Marcus Forston earned Freshman All-America honors. Three defensive lineman were among Miami's top 10 tacklers and the defensive line accounted for 20.5 (66 percent) of Miami's 31 sacks, which was fifth in the ACC.

In 2007, the Miami defensive line featured Arizona Cardinals' second-round selection Calais Campbell. Campbell ranked third on the team with 85 tackles from his defensive end spot. Senior Vegas Franklin had his best season as a Hurricane, leading the team with seven sacks and ranking second with 11.5 tackles for loss. UM's defensive line tallied 27.5 sacks while Miami's defense led the ACC

Hurtt returned to his alma mater in 2006 after one season as the defensive line coach at Florida International. The 2006 Hurricanes' defense set a school record for allowing the fewest rushing yards in a season -- 67.9 yards per game, breaking the previous mark of 69.1 yards per game set in 1989.

One of three former Hurricanes players on the current UM coaching staff, Hurtt was a three-year letterman for the Hurricanes as a defensive lineman. He signed with UM in 1997 and played extensively as a freshman before redshirting in 1998 to recover from an injury. Hurtt returned to the lineup and saw extensive action in 1999 and 2000 before an injury prior to the 2001 season ended his playing career. After the injury, Hurtt joined the Hurricanes staff as a volunteer assistant on the strength and conditioning staff. In 2003, he was named a graduate assistant and worked with the defensive line for two seasons.

In his only season at FIU, Hurtt was responsible for grooming 2005 Lombardi Award Watch List candidate Antwan Barnes from linebacker to defensive end, where he earned First-Team All-Sun Belt Conference honors, averaging one sack per game.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Hurtt had an outstanding prep career at Milford (Conn.) Academy. He graduated from the University of Miami in 2001 with a degree in criminology and liberal arts. His father, Clinton, played for the New York Jets and Baltimore Colts.

He and his wife, Tanisha, have a daughter Taylor Destinee.

- Seventh in voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1992
- Second-round draft choice of the Houston Oilers in 1993
- Played 13 years in the NFL for the Houston Oilers, Carolina Panthers, New York Giants, Washington Redskins and Dallas Cowboys

Micheal Barrow returned to his alma mater in 2007 and enters his third season on the University of Miami coaching staff. Barrow will work with all phases of the Miami defense as well as assist with special teams.

Barrow focused on the linebackers in 2008 and helped freshman Sean Spence to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and Freshman All-America honors. Senior Spencer Adkins was drafted in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Barrow also helped Glenn Cook to one of his best seasons on the field. Cook led the Hurricanes in tackles and along with Spence and Darryl Sharpton was among Miami's top tacklers.

In 2007, Barrow guided senior linebacker Tavares Gooden through a strong senior campaign at Miami. Gooden, a third round pick of the Baltimore Ravens in 2008, led the Hurricanes with 119 tackles. Under Barrow's watch, junior linebacker Colin McCarthy was the fourth leading tackler on the team.

Barrow is one of three former Hurricanes players on the current UM coaching staff. He played for the team from 1989-92. In 1992, he earned All-America honors, was the Butkus Award runner-up and finished seventh in Heisman Trophy voting. He was also the Big East Defensive Player of the Year and finished his career as the third-leading tackler in school history.

As a Hurricane, Barrow played in 45 games, starting 37 times. He made 423 total tackles, along with seven sacks, 34 tackles for loss, three interceptions, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Barrow went on to play 13 seasons in the NFL. He was a second-round draft choice of the Houston Oilers in 1993. Barrow played for the Oilers through 1996, for the Carolina Panthers (1997-99), the New York Giants (2000-03), the Washington Redskins (2004) and the Dallas Cowboys (2005). During his NFL career, Barrow played in 173 games, making 1,133 tackles, 43 sacks and two interceptions.

After retiring from pro football, Barrow served as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Homestead High School, his alma mater, during the 2006 season. He was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 2005. He is an ordained Christian minister. Barrow and his wife, Shelley, have a daughter, Mikenzi, and sons, Kaleb and John Micheal.

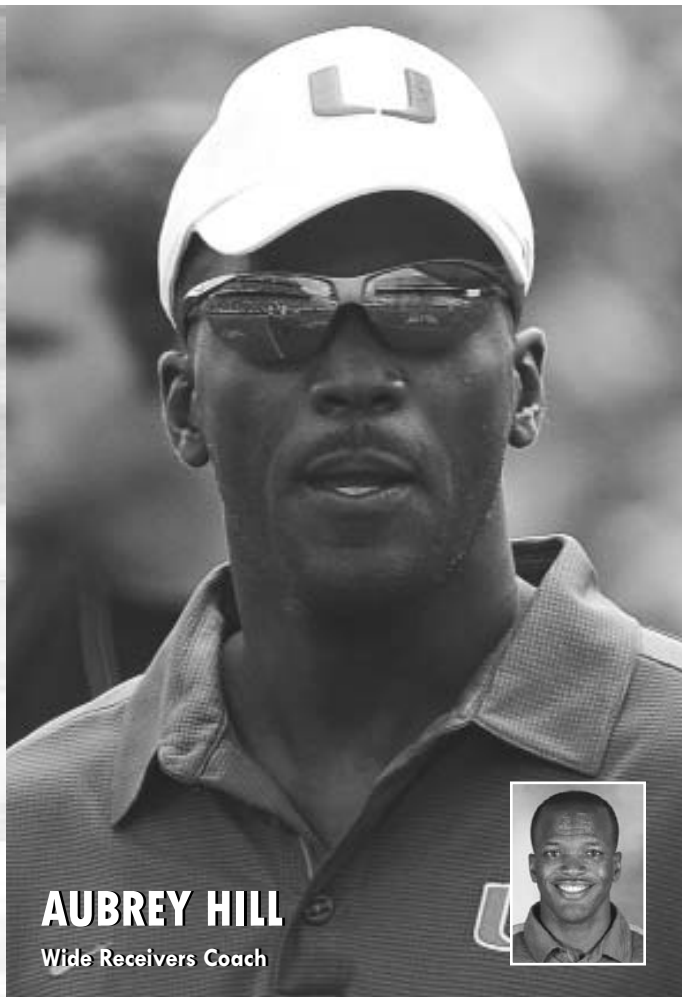
HONORS AS A PLAYER

- Four-year letterman at Florida
- Helped Florida to a 43-10-1 (.806) record in four years and three SEC titles
- Third best TD ratio in Gators history, catching a touchdown every 4.78 catches and finished with 86 career receptions and 18 touchdowns



Aubrey Hill is in his second year as the wide receivers coach at the University of Miami, where he guided a young and very talented group of receivers in 2008.

Hill's 2009 group of receivers will be one of the top corps in the ACC. In 2008, three true freshmen receivers were among UM leaders as Aldarius Johnson led the Hurricanes with a team-high 31 receptions and 332 yards and Thearon Collier was third in total receptions (26). UM had seven receivers with 100 receiving yards in 2008 - the first time since 2000.

Shanae, Aubrey and Destini Hill

Before arriving in Coral Gables, he spent three years on the University of Pittsburgh coaching staff, where he tutored first-team All-Big East performers Greg Lee in 2005 and the tandem of Derek Kinder and freshman All-American Oderick Turner in 2006.

In 2004, Hill coached at Elon (N.C.) University as receivers coach. Prior to that he was the receivers coach at Duke for five seasons and also served in a pair of NFL coaching internships.

Hill played and coached in Steve Spurrier's "Fun 'n Gun" offense at Florida. He was a standout receiver at Florida from 1991-94 before moving into the coaching ranks.

As a player at Florida, he helped the Gators to a four-year record of 43-10-1 (.806) and three SEC championships. He totaled 86 receptions and 18 touchdowns during his career and caught a touchdown every 4.78 catches, the third best TD ratio in Gators history. He was a team captain as a senior in 1994.

Following his playing career, Hill served as a Florida graduate assistant from 1996-98. In his first season as an assistant, Florida captured the national championship with a 12-1 mark, capped by a 52-20 victory over Florida State in the Sugar Bowl. During his three years on the Florida staff, the Gators went a combined 32-5 (.865). Hill earned his first full-time appointment at Duke, where he served as receivers coach from 1999-2003. He was instrumental in the development of Scottie Montgomery, who finished his collegiate career ranked second in career receptions (171) and third in yardage (2,379) in Blue Devil annals. He supplemented his collegiate experience with a pair of NFL internships, including stints with the Washington Redskins (summer 2001) and Miami Dolphins (summer 2002). Hill was involved with receivers and special teams in both internships.

Hill owns two degrees from Florida, including a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport sciences and a master's degree in leisure and sports management. He and his wife, Shanae, were married on July 4, 2008 and has a daughter, Destini.

- Jason Smith (Baylor) - St. Louis Rams

Wesley McGriff is in his third year on the University of Miami coaching staff as the Hurricanes' defensive backs coach.

McGriff returns an experienced group in the secondary in 2009, with six players with starting experience back. In 2008, Miami ranked seventh nationally and second in the ACC in pass defense, yielding just 165.6 yards through the air. Only four teams threw for more than 200 yards in 13 contests, while four teams were held under 100 yards passing.

In 2007, McGriff helped safety Kenny Phillips in his final season with the Hurricanes earn Second Team All-America honors. Phillips was the first round draft pick of the New York Giants. That season, Miami ranked sixth in the ACC in passing defense.

An extremely versatile coach, McGriff has mentored players on both sides of the ball during his 18-year career, including two stints as a defensive coordinator. Considered one of the Big 12's top recruiters, McGriff came to Miami in 2007 after a few weeks on the staff at Kansas State and four years at Baylor, where he served as recruiting coordinator and cornerbacks coach under Guy Morriss.

At Baylor, McGriff's defensive backs ranked 13th in pass efficiency in 2005. The 2005 Baylor defense allowed just 14 touchdowns through the air, its fewest since 1998, and recorded its most interceptions (16) since 1994, with McGriff's cornerbacks accounting for 11 interceptions.

Prior to his stint at Baylor, McGriff spent two seasons on Morriss' Kentucky staff, coaching the running backs in 2001 before returning to the defensive side of the ball as UK's cornerbacks coach in 2002.

McGriff spent the 2000 campaign as the secondary coach at Eastern Kentucky, where he mentored Yeremiah Bell, a first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference pick who went on to be drafted by the Miami Dolphins. The 2000 Colonels ranked fourth nationally in total defense, fifth in scoring defense and ninth in passing yardage allowed, while posting four shutouts during the season.

From 1995 through 1999, McGriff served as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Kentucky State, where his defenses posted numerous top-10 statistical rankings, including leading the nation in total defense in 1995 and pass yardage defense in 1997. In 1998, he was named the American Football Coaches Association's NCAA Division II National Assistant Coach of the Year.

McGriff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Savannah State, where he coached the Tigers' running backs in 1990 before moving into a full-time role as secondary coach in 1991-92. He then served as Savannah State's defensive coordinator in 1993-94, and he was the team's interim head coach for three months in spring 1993.

Karen, Jaylen and Wesley McGriff

In addition, he was Savannah State's head baseball coach from 1991-95, winning two conference championships and being named conference Coach of the Year twice.

A native of Tifton, Ga., McGriff played cornerback, running back and wide receiver for the Tift County High School state championship team. He played at South Carolina State for one year before transferring to Savannah State, where he started at outside linebacker for three seasons and was named the conference's 1989 Male Academic Athlete of the Year. He received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Savannah State in 1990 and graduated cum laude. In 1993, he earned a master's in public administration from Georgia Southern, graduating with distinction.

McGriff was commissioned as a 2nd lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1990 and was a member of the Army Reserves until 2001. He and his wife, Karen, have a son, Jaylen.

TOMMIE ROBINSON

Running Backs Coach

Tommie Robinson is in his third year as the running backs coach at the University of Miami. He has 15 years of experience coaching in college football and three years in the National Football League.

Robinson returns two of the Atlantic Coast Conference's top running backs in 2009 in Graig Cooper and Javarris James, in addition to his No. 3 tailback in Lee Chambers and his starting fullback Patrick Hill. Cooper ranked sixth in the ACC last season in rushing and recorded three 100-yard rushing performances, while Miami ranked sixth in the league in rushing offense.

Trey, Lartonyar, Tawanda and Tommie Robinson

Robinson also coached one of the best young running back tandems in the country in 2007. James and Cooper combined for 1,354 yards and nine touchdowns. Cooper's 682 yards were the third most yards by a UM freshman and he ranked fourth nationally in rushing among true freshmen.

Robinson spent the 2006 season as the running backs coach at the University of Memphis, following a four-year stint as an assistant at Georgia Tech (2002-05), where he coached under Chan Gailey, for whom he played at Troy State and worked under as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. At Georgia Tech, Robinson coached wide receivers for one season before becoming the tight ends coach, where he tutored former NFL players John Paul Foschi and Darius Williams. During the 2002 season, Robinson worked with standout receivers Kerry Watkins and Will Glover, who both finished their careers among the top-five receivers in Georgia Tech history.

He spent the 2001 season as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State, where he worked with Tatum Bell.

From 1998-2000, he served as an offensive assistant with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, working with wide receivers and special teams. While in Dallas, he worked with such noted NFL greats as Deion Sanders, Emmitt Smith and former Hurricane Michael Irvin.

Prior to his time in Dallas, Robinson spent three months at UNLV in 1998, four seasons at TCU (1994-97) and two years at Utah State (1992-93) as a full-time assistant. While he was at TCU, he worked with LaDainian Tomlinson, the All-Pro running back for the San Diego Chargers.

Robinson began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas. He has also served NFL coaching internships with the New Orleans Saints, St. Louis Rams, Dallas Cowboys and Miami Dolphins.

A native of Phenix City, Ala., Robinson played for Gailey at Troy State, where he was a part of the 1984 Division II national championship team. He was a three-year starter as a strong safety for the Trojans and served as team captain. Robinson earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1985.

After pursuing professional football, he coached on the high school level, including four years (1987-90) at his alma mater, Central High, in Phenix City, Ala.

Robinson was born April 4, 1963 in Columbus, Ga. He and his wife, Lartonyar, have three children, Dantrell, Tawanda and Trey.

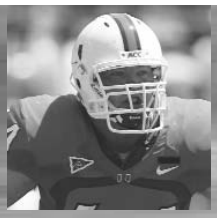
- Greg Bloedorn (Cornell) - Seattle Seahawks



Jeff Stoutland is in his third year as the offensive line coach for the Hurricanes. As one of the nation's most respected line coaches, his lines at Michigan State and Syracuse were known for their outstanding run-blocking.

Stoutland coached an offensive line in 2008 that blocked for the Atlantic Coast Conference's third best scoring offense. In 2009, he returns three full-time starters in Outland Trophy and Lombardi candidates Jason Fox and Orlando Franklin, as well as A.J. Trump, who takes over the starting job at center. Junior Joel Figueroa, also has started and saw extensive playing time at guard.

In 2007, Miami ranked third in the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing offense and fourth in sacks allowed.

Stoutland spent seven seasons as the offensive line coach at Michigan State, following three years as an assistant coach at Syracuse and four years at Cornell.

During his tenure at Michigan State, Stoutland helped develop six All-Big Ten selections: guard Shaun Mason (second team, 2000), tackle Steve Stewart (second team, 2003), guard Joe Tate (second team, 2003), tackle Sean Poole (first team, 2004), guard William Whitticker (second team, 2004) and guard Kyle Cook (second team, 2006). In addition, seven of his offensive linemen earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, including Mason (2000), Tate (2001), guard Paul Harker (2002-03), center Chris Morris (2002-03-04-05), tackle Gordon Niebylski (2002-03-04-05), guard Pete Clifford (2004-05) and tackle Mike Gyetvai (2004). In 2005, Morris garnered ESPN Magazine Academic All-America Second-Team honors.

In 2005, the Michigan State line paved the way for the nation's No. 5 offense, the No. 11 pass offense and the No. 20 rush offense. The 2004 Spartans offense ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 10 in the NCAA in rushing, with eight 200-yard rushing games. That line led the Big Ten in fewest sacks allowed (eight). Stoutland's offensive line paved the way for T.J. Duckett, who produced back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in 2000 and 2001.

Stoutland spent three seasons under Paul Pasqualoni at Syracuse (1997-99), where he coached the tight ends his first two years before taking over the offensive line in 1999. In addition to his coaching duties, he also served as the Orangemen's recruiting coordinator for all three years. Syracuse played in three bowl games in three years. In 1999, he coached First-Team All-Big East offensive tackle Mark Baniewicz, who also earned the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award and GTE Academic All-America honors. During his stint as tight ends coach, Stoutland helped produce two NFL players, including Roland Williams (Oakland Raiders) and Kaseem Sinceno (Philadelphia Eagles and Chicago Bears).

Prior to that, Stoutland spent four years as offensive line coach at Cornell (1993-96), where he guided center Greg Bloedorn to First-Team All-Ivy League honors in 1995, and spent three years with the NFL's Seattle Seahawks (1997-99).

Allison, Jake, Madison and Jeff Stoutland

His full-time coaching credits include two stints at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State, where he served as offensive coordinator for five years (1988-92) and coached inside linebackers for two seasons (1984-85). The New York City native also served as a graduate assistant for Coach Dick MacPherson for two years at Syracuse (1986-87), working primarily with the offensive line. He has coached in six bowl games.

Stoutland was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at inside linebacker for head coach Kevin Gilbride at Southern Connecticut State (1980-84), where he earned Little All-America honors as a senior while acting as team captain. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State in 1984 and added a master's degree in exercise physiology from the school in 1986.

He and his wife, Allison, who is a published children's author, have two children: Jake and Madison.

Strength and Conditioning

ANDREU SWASEY

Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

Now in his ninth season as the Miami Hurricanes' head strength and conditioning coach, Andreu Swasey has quickly earned the admiration and respect of UM's players and coaches and has developed a reputation as one of the finest in his field. One of college football's best known and most innovative strength coaches, Swasey has an extensive background in speed and agility training.

Swasey is in charge of the daily conditioning regimen of more than 100 student-athletes in the Hurricanes football program. He also directs Miami's entire strength and conditioning staff of five strength coaches who supervise all of the conditioning needs of UM's 18 scholarship sports. Swasey has a unique perspective for a strength and conditioning coach, as he has previous experience as a defensive backs coach and a player. That background makes Swasey the perfect person to address the specific needs of football student-athletes.

Swasey has coached in nine bowl games with the Hurricanes including the 2001 national championship at the Rose Bowl. As a football player at Baylor University, he started at cornerback and was a two-year letterman. He was the starting strong safety for the Bears as a senior in 1993 after playing extensively as a reserve in 1992 on a team that defeated Arizona in the Sun Bowl.

A defensive back at Baylor University, Swasey's current stint at UM is his second with the Hurricanes. He returned to UM in 2000 from the University of Houston. He spent the 2000 season as UM's co-head strength and conditioning coach in charge of speed and agility and was promoted to head of the department in 2001.

Swasey was with the Hurricanes in 1997 and 1998 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach before moving on to coach defensive backs at Houston in 1999. Swasey began his coaching career at Copperas Cove (Texas) High School, where he coached defensive backs from 1995 to 1997.

Prior to his playing days at Baylor, Swasey was a standout at Fort Scott (Kansas) Junior College, where he earned Second-Team Junior College All-America honors in 1991 and was an all-conference honoree.

A native of Miami, Swasey is a graduate of Carol City High School. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology from Baylor in 1995. He and his wife, Monica, have four children: sons Andrew and Jovon and daughters Ashlinn and Jaela.

VICTOR ISHMAEL

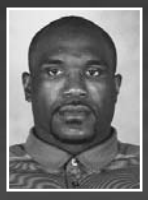
Strength and Conditioning Assistant

Victor Ishmael is in his ninth season at Miami as an assistant in the strength and conditioning department. He works primarily with the football program, and also with women's rowing and women's golf.

He has spent more than 17 years working in the strength and conditioning field, and was the assistant director of strength and conditioning at North Carolina from 1998-2001. He also spent time at South Carolina and Georgia. Ishmael received a B.A. in English from South Carolina State in 1987, where he was a four-year letterman as an offensive lineman. Ishmael and his wife, Renee, have four children: sons Victor Jr. and Jabari, and daughters Marisa and Aiyana.

COLS COLAS

Strength and Conditioning Assistant



Cols Colas is in fifth year at Miami as an assistant in the strength and conditioning department. He works primarily with the football, women's soccer, women's tennis, diving and women's track programs.

Before Miami, Colas was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater Virginia Tech from 2003-05. He lettered four years as a defensive end for the Hokies' football team from 1999-2003. He earned a master's degree in health promotion in 2004. Colas received a bachelor's of science in residential property management with minors in business and real estate from Virginia Tech in 2003. He married the former Megan Rittler last spring.

COREY BELL

Director of Football Operations

Corey Bell is in his third year as the Miami Hurricanes' director of football operations.

Bell serves as coach Randy Shannon's daily liaison with all other departments in the athletic offices and he oversees football matters related to the current student-athletes, including budget, the training table, travel coordination and college compliance issues.

Bell came to UM from Miami's Edison High School, where he was the head football coach from 1997 to 2006. At age 25, he became the youngest head coach in the state and took over a team that finished 0-10 the year before. Bell quickly built Edison into one of Dade County's top football programs. His teams made five consecutive state playoff appearances and three-straight district titles. His 2003 team was ranked No. 1 in Miami-Dade County. Over his tenure, Bell had 84 Division I signees and six prep All-Americans.

Bell received a B.S. in criminal justice from South Carolina in 1995 and a master's degree in social studies education from Nova Southeastern in 2000. He was a two-year letterman as a cornerback at South Carolina and started in the team's 1995 Carquest Bowl game, which was the school's first bowl victory in school history.

Bell and his wife, Tamika, have two daughters: Daijah and Dahnia.

Blaylock came to Miami after spending the 2007 football season working with the Miami Dolphins in operations. He assisted with gameday duties, player and coaches' needs as well as training camp.

He worked with the Arena Football's Austin Wranglers from 2005-07 as an operations' manager. He also coached high school football for three years at his alma mater Jordan High Shcool. A native of Durham, N.C., Blaylock received a bachelor of arts in management from the University of North Carolina in 2005. He earned a master's degree in sport management in 2007 from the University of Texas at Austin. While a student at UNC, Blaylock worked for four years (2001-05) as a football operations assistant helping with recruiting efforts.

STEWART CRAMER

Coordinator of Video

Stewart Cramer enters his 13th year as coordinator of video and computers at the University of Miami. While Cramer's role centers on the video needs of the Hurricanes football program, his responsibilities also include serving the entire Miami athletic department.

Cramer and UM MBA graduate Michael O'Leary won a 2008 Suncoast Regional Emmy Award for Outstanding Commericial for a Miami produced video "Mosaic." The duo was also selected as the winners of the Special Feature: Colleges, Conferences and Governing Bodies at the First Annual Global Media Awards in for College Sports in 2009. "Mosaic" and "It Begins Here" were finalists in other categories. "Mosaic", a commercial about the athletic department's Olympic sports, was nominated in the Outstanding Promotional Video or Campaign: Colleges, Conferences and Governing Bodies. "It Begins Here", a retrospective of UM's athletic facilities, was nominated in the Outstanding Promotional Video or Campaign category as well as for the College Sports Video of the Year. "Mosaic" and "University of Miami Diving" were nominated in the Advanced Media Program at the Suncoast Regional Emmy Awards..

A native of South Lyon, Mich., Cramer has distinguished himself as one of the nation's foremost video coordinators. In 2001 and 2002, he was named the Big East Conference Video Coordinator of the Year in a vote taken by the membership of the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

Cramer began his career at Miami in 1996 upon graduation from Central Michigan University with a bachelor of applied arts degree in broadcasting and cinematic arts. At Central Michigan, he served as the football programs' video coordinator.

BOBBY REVILLA

Football Equipment Manager

Bobby Revilla's association with Miami football dates back more than two decades, making him one of the mainstays of the Hurricanes football program. Revilla has been with the Hurricanes' equipment staff for 24 years as a full-time employee, but he has worked with Miami football on a continuous basis since 1982, when he joined the staff as a student manager while attending the University.

Revilla oversees all of the equipment needs and maintenance for Miami's athletic department, while supervising a staff of two full-time assistants, plus several student assistants.

Revilla has been a full-time staffer at UM since 1986, when he was named an assistant equipment manager under then-head coach Jimmy Johnson. Former UM head coach Butch Davis named Revilla the head football equipment manager for the Hurricanes prior to the 1998 season. The 2009 season will be his 12th in that role at Miami.

During his career at Miami, Revilla has been a part of all five of Miami's football national championships, as he started as a student assistant under then-head coach Howard Schnellenberger and has worked continuously through the regimes of Jimmy Johnson, Dennis Erickson, Butch Davis, Larry Coker and current UM head coach Randy Shannon. Revilla has made 23 bowl trips with the Hurricanes over his 28 years in the program.

Revilla and his wife, Janet, have two sons Steven and Zachary.

Athletic Training Staff

SCOTT McGONAGLE

Director of Athletic Training

Scott McGonagle is in his 15th season as Miami's head athletic trainer. McGonagle and his staff are responsible for the year-round health care of every UM student-athlete. In his 32nd year as an athletic trainer, McGonagle oversees the sports medicine program for Miami's 17 intercollegiate varsity sports.

A native of Syracuse, Kan., McGonagle became a part of the Miami Hurricanes staff in 1995 as head athletic trainer. He oversees a staff of nine full-time assistant trainers and seven graduate assistant trainers, and he works in conjunction with one of the nation's most respected staffs of physicians to assure the finest medical care for UM student-athletes.

McGonagle's extensive experience includes 13 seasons as head athletic trainer at the University of Tulsa (1982-1995), one year as the head athletic trainer at Crowley (Texas) High School (1981-82) and one year as head athletic trainer at Sahuarita High School (1980-81).

McGonagle began his collegiate athletics career as a student trainer at the University of Kansas from 1977 to 1980. During that time, McGonagle worked as a student athletic trainer for the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1978, 1979 and 1981 seasons.

He received his bachelor of science in physical education from the University of Kansas in 1980. He later added a master's of science in athletic training from the University of Arizona in 1981. McGonagle and his wife, Lynette, have a son, Matthew (27) and a daughter, Megan (23). Matthew and his wife Kelli have a daughter Madilin.

KEVIN BLASKE

Associate Athletic Trainer

Kevin Blaske is in his 10th year at Miami and his third as an associate athletic trainer, following four years as an assistant athletic trainer. He oversees athletic training for the football program and also works with women's golf.

Blaske received a B.S. in biology from Missouri Southern in 1990 and a M.S. in sports management from Tulsa in 1992. He went on to work as an athletic trainer for the FSL Texas Rangers (1992), Freeman Sports Medicine (1992-94), Pittsburgh Piranhas of the CBA (1995), Frontier Baseball League (1994-97) and Lindsey Wilson College (1997-2000) before joining UM.

Faculty Athletic Representative

DR. CLYDE B. McCOY

Clyde B. McCoy, Ph.D. has served the University of Miami and the Miller School of Medicine in many and varying capacities for more than thirty five years.

In this role as Faculty Athletic Representative, Dr. McCoy is responsible for ensuring academic integrity, facilitating institutional control of intercollegiate athletics and enhancing the student-athlete experience, as well as representing the University to the NCAA, the ACC and other organizations involving student athletics. He now serves in the new administrative cabinet of the NCAA. Within the ACC, he is the voting delegate representing the University of Miami and therefore part of the governing body of the Conference and will continue to serve as an officer on the executive committee for the next two years including his current role as president of the conference, which includes chairing the business meetings as well as hosting the ACC for one of its annual meetings.

Dr. McCoy has established drug education, testing and treatment programs that serve as a model for colleges and universities throughout the United States.

During his tenure at the University he has established a successful career and international reputation in research, teaching and administration. Dr. McCoy was the inaugural recipient of the Senator Jim King Leadership award by the State of Florida. He has been honored as a Distinguished Alumni at the University of Cincinnati, and at his high school, Norview, where we will be inducted into the Wall of Honor this year, and Most Outstanding Faculty Athletic Representative by the American Football Foundation and is proud to be a member of University of Miami's Iron Arrow and Phi Beta Delta, Honor Society for International Scholars.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE (PROSPECT)?

You are a prospect if you have started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, you may become a prospect if a university provides you (or your family or friends) any financial aid or other benefit that is not usually provided to prospective student-athletes.

YOU ARE NO LONGER A PROSPECT IF YOU HAVE DONE ANY OF THE FOLLOWING:

(1) Officially register and enroll in a minimum full-time program of studies and have attended classes in any four-year collegiate institution's regular academic year (excluding summer); or (2) Participated in a regular squad practice or competition at a four-year collegiate institution that occurs before the beginning of any term; or (3) Officially register and enrolled and attend classes during the summer prior to initial enrollment and receive institutional athletics aid.

HOW DO I KNOW IF I'M BEING RECRUITED?

A coach is recruiting you if they try to convince you directly, or through your family, to attend their school and participate in intercollegiate athletics. There are several ways to be recruited: (1) a coach may provide you with an official paid visit to view the campus, (2) a coach may arrange an in-person, off-campus meeting with you (or your family), or (3) a coach or staff member may call you (or your family) on more than one occasion for the purpose of recruitment.

Coaches and authorized institutional staff members are the only individuals who may recruit you. Representatives of athletic interests (boosters) may not call, write or make in-person contact with you anywhere for the purpose of recruiting you to a university and participating in athletics.

WHEN CAN A COACH CONTACT ME?
OFF CAMPUS CONTACT

In the sport of basketball, a coach can arrange a face-to-face meeting with you, off the University's campus, beginning the first day of classes of your senior year.

In all other sports, a coach can arrange a face-to-face meeting with you, off the University's campus, beginning July 1 after your junior year.

TELEPHONE CALLS

In all sports other than football and basketball, a coach may call a prospect one time per week after July 1 following the completion of the prospect's junior year in high school.

In the sport of football, a coach may initiate one telephone call to a prospect between April 15th and May 31st of the prospect's junior year. Additional calls are not permitted prior to September 1st of the beginning of the prospect's senior year in high school.

In the sport of men's basketball, coaches may make one telephone call per month from June 15 of the prospect's sophomore year through July 31 of the junior year. Beginning August 1 of the senior year a coach may make two telephone calls per week. Only one call per week may be made to a two-year or four-year college prospect.

In the sport of women's basketball, coaches may make one telephone call per month during the months of April (on or after the Thursday after the conclusion of the NCAA Division I Final Four) and May of the prospect's junior year in high school, one telephone call between June 1 and June 20 and one telephone call between June 21 and June 30 of the prospect's junior year in high school. Three telephone calls to a prospect are permitted during the month of July, with no more than one call per week.

In the following circumstances unlimited calls to a prospect are permitted: (1) during the five days immediately preceding an official visit to the University of Miami, (2) on the initial date for signing the National Letter of Intent and the two days following the signing date, and (3) on the day of a coach's off-campus contact with a prospect

For all sports, coaches may receive telephone calls placed by a prospect at the prospect's expense at anytime, including before July 1 following the prospect's junior year in high school.

LETTERS

In sports other than men's basketball, letters and recruiting information may be sent to you starting September 1 at the beginning of your junior year in high school. In men's basketball, recruiting materials may be provided starting June 15 at the conclusion of the prospect's sophomore year.

WHAT IS A CONTACT?

A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent(s) or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange of a greeting. NOTE: At the Division I level, athletic representatives (boosters) may not contact you for the purpose of recruiting.

WHAT CAN A SCHOOL OFFER ME TO ATTEND THEIR UNIVERSITY?

You (or your family) may not receive any benefit, inducement or arrangements such as cash, clothing, cars, gifts or loans to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent or to attend a NCAA school.

A University may offer you a one-year scholarship that covers room and board, tuition and fees, and required course-related books, or any part of these. The institution can recommend that this aid is renewed each year, as is the general practice at the University of Miami but this renewal is not guaranteed. In addition, they can offer you quality academic and medical support, as well as the opportunity to compete for one of the nation's top programs.

WHAT CAN I DO DURING THIS PROCESS?

Enjoy your high school years and work hard both in the classroom and in your sport. At the beginning of your junior year you should sign up for the NCAA Clearinghouse. Your high school guidance office can provide you with the information to register.

A DIVISION I INSTITUTION MAY PROVIDE A RECRUIT WITH THE FOLLOWING PRINTED MATERIALS:

- General correspondence, including letters, U.S. Postal Service postcards and institutional note cards;
- Game programs, which may not include posters, and one Student-Athlete Handbook;
- NCAA educational information;
- Pre-enrollment information subsequent to signing a National Letter of Intent with the university;
- One athletic publication (e.g., media guide or recruiting brochure);
- Official academic, admissions and student services publications published or videos produced by the institution and available to all students;
- Schedule and business cards;
- Questionnaires which may be provided prior to your junior year; and Camp brochures which may be provided prior to your junior year.

GAME 1 - MIAMI 52, CHARLESTON SOUTHERN 7

THUR., AUG. 28, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Graig Cooper had a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown and rushed for another score, quarterback Jacory Harris accounted for two touchdowns and Miami moved into its new home with a 52-7 season-opening win over Charleston Southern. Javarris James rushed 12 times for 73 yards and a touchdown for the Hurricanes (1-0), who had a 21-point first quarter, their highest-scoring period since Sept. 9, 2006 against Florida A&M. Derron Thomas and Shawnbrey McNeal also had touchdown runs for Miami, which outgained its outmatched opponents from the Football Championship Subdivision, 416-126. Harris was 16-for-26 for 190 yards for the Hurricanes.

GAME 2 - NO. 5 FLORIDA 26, MIAMI 3

SAT., SEPT. 6, 2008 - BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) - Fifth-ranked Florida snapped a six-game losing streak against Miami with a 26-3 victory at The Swamp. It was Florida's first win since 1985 in the on-again, off-again series. The Hurricanes (1-1) hung close for three quarters. UF QB Tim Tebow and Percy Harvin took over late and erased three quarters of frustration against Miami's improved defense. Robert Marve, making his first career start for Miami, was 10-of-18 passing for 69 yards. Florida, whose two scores in the first half came off Miami miscues on special teams, led 9-3 to start the fourth quarter. But UF put together consecutive drives of 86 and 95 yards. The Gators took advantage of two favorable calls to score the first of the two late touchdowns. Florida might not have even scored in the first half had Miami not made two errors on special teams. Miami sucked the energy out of Florida Field - most of the record 90,833 in attendance were clad in orange and blue - with a 16-play drive that took 8:42 off the clock and kept Tebow on the sideline. It ended with a field goal, but gave the Hurricanes plenty of confidence they could play with the Mighty Gators.

GAME 3 - MIAMI 41, TEXAS A&M 23

SAT., SEPT. 20, 2008 - KYLE FIELD

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) - Robert Marve threw two touchdown passes and Graig Cooper ran for career-high 128 yards and two scores as Miami picked apart Texas A&M's defense in a 41-23 rout. Marve, a redshirt freshman making his second career start, completed 16 of 22 passes for 212 yards. The Hurricanes (2-1) piled up 398 yards on 57 plays - an average of 6.98 yards per offensive snap - and handed A&M its worst nonconference defeat at Kyle Field since a 30-10 loss to Alabama in 1988. The Hurricanes gained 261 yards in the first half.

GAME 4 - NORTH CAROLINA 28, MIAMI 24

SAT., SEPT. 27, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Cameron Sexton threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Brooks Foster with 46 seconds left, Trimane Goddard had two interceptions in the final minutes, and North Carolina rallied from an early 14-point deficit to beat Miami 28-24. Miami had a chance late, getting the ball at its own 31. Robert Marve found Kayne Farquharson for a 29-yard gain that took the Hurricanes to the North Carolina 20 with 15 seconds remaining. Marve nearly hooked up with Farquharson again on the final play of the game, but Goddard's second pick of the quarter sealed the Tar Heels' win. Marve threw three touchdown passes for Miami (2-2, 0-1), and Graig Cooper rushed for 113 yards plus had a receiving TD for the Hurricanes.

GAME 6 - MIAMI 20, UCF 14

SAT., OCT. 11, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Graig Cooper had a career-high 23 rushes for 90 yards, including the clinching touchdown after a muffed punt return late in the fourth quarter and Miami pulled out a 20-14 victory over UCF to snap a two-game losing streak. Robert Marve found Travis Benjamin with a 25-yard touchdown pass in the opening quarter for Miami (3-3). Miami's defense simply overwhelmed the Knights, forcing UCF (2-4) into a school-record 12 punts and only allowing 78 yards. The halftime stats were baffling. Miami outgained UCF 168-42, held nearly a 2-to-1 edge in time of possession, allowed Calabrese to connect on just 4 of 18 passes (including eight straight incompletions in one stretch), forced seven punts and blocked one of them - yet still led by only a field goal.

GAME 7 - MIAMI 49, DUKE 31

SAT., OCT. 18, 2008 - WALLACE WADE STADIUM

DURHAM, N.C.. (AP) - Jacory Harris threw four touchdown passes and ran for another, accounting for three third-quarter touchdowns to lead Miami past Duke 49-31. The freshman took over for starter Robert Marve in the second quarter and became the first Miami quarterback to both throw for four scores and account for five TDs since 2005, when Kyle Wright did it against Wake Forest. Harris finished 18-for-28 for 185 yards with two interceptions to help the Hurricanes rally from a 10-point deficit, outscore the Blue Devils 35-14 in the second half. Miami (4-3, 1-2 ACC) rolled up 420 yards in claiming its 78th straight win when scoring at least 42 points.

GAME 8 - MIAMI 16, WAKE FOREST 10

SAT., OCT. 25, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Robert Marve had a 1-yard touchdown run to put Miami ahead for good, Matt Bosher kicked three field goals, and the Hurricanes' defense stiffened considerably in the second half on the way to beating Wake Forest 16-10. Marve completed 11 of 20 passes for 153 yards and set up the go-ahead score in the third quarter with a 43-yard rush, helping Miami (5-3, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) win consecutive league games for the first time since October 2006. Marve then hit Thearon Collier with a perfect 25-yard pass on third-and-10 with 3 minutes left, getting Miami to midfield and allowing the Hurricanes to run out the clock. Bosher's field goals were from 36, 52 and 43 yards for Miami.

GAME 9 - MIAMI 24, VIRGINIA 17 (OT)

SAT., NOV. 1, 2008 - SCOTT STADIUM

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) - Jacory Harris threw a tying touchdown pass in the final minute and another one in overtime to give Miami a 24-17 win over Virginia that gave the Hurricanes a tie for the lead in the ACC's Coastal Division. Harris hit LaRon Byrd with a desperation heave from 26 yards to tie it, and then found Aldarius Johnson near the left pylon to give them the lead in overtime. When Virginia tailback Cedric Peerman was stripped of the ball on the Cavaliers' first play of overtime, the Hurricanes (6-3, 3-2 ACC) had their fourth victory in a row. Miami's tying drive was a 95-yard, 15-play march, and it featured a 13-yard pass on a third-and-13 play at the beginning, and the touchdown on a third-and-15 prayer at the end. In the overtime, Harris faced a third-and-5 from the 9 when he passed to the 6-foot-2 Johnson, who beat 5-9 cornerback Vic Hall for the ball to give the Hurricanes the lead. Harris finished 12-for-21 for 160 yards for Miami, and Graig Cooper ran for 131 yards on 24 carries as the Hurricanes outgained Virginia 448-311 and overcame 81 yards in penalties.

GAME 10 - MIAMI 16, VIRGINIA TECH 14

THURS., NOV. 13, 2008 - DOLPHIN STADIUM

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Javarris James ran for a touchdown, Matt Bosher kicked three field goals, and Miami got a huge defensive stand in the final minutes to beat Virginia Tech 16-14 on a Thursday night and move into first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coastal Division. Marcus Robinson had three sacks and a big third-down tackle for a loss with 2:27 left to help the Hurricanes win their fifth straight. Robinson's stop on Dustin Pickle forced the Hokies, who were out of timeouts, into a fourth-and-3 - and Allen Bailey sacked Tyrod Taylor to seal the win for the Hurricanes, who knelt three times to run out the clock. Robert Marve threw for 121 yards and rushed for 44 more for the Hurricanes. Bosher connected from 21 and 31 yards in the third quarter, then added a 23-yarder early in the fourth for a 16-7 Miami advantage. Not only was it senior night for 23 Hurricanes, but Miami added five players - Jim Kelly, Cortez Kennedy, Jim Otto, Gino Torretta and Edgerrin James - to its ring of honor in a halftime ceremony.

THURS., NOV. 20, 2008 - BOBBY DODD STADIUM

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) - Georgia Tech piled up 472 yards on the ground - the second-most ever allowed by the Hurricanes - in a 41-23 rout. Jonathan Dwyer ripped off 128 yards with just 10 carries in the first half, including a 58-yard touchdown Dwyer scored again on his last play of the night. The Hurricanes trailed 27-3 before finally reaching the end zone midway through the third quarter. Robert Marve hit Dedrick Epps for an 18-yard TD pulling UM within 31-10. Jacory Harris capped off the Hurricanes scoring guiding them to two touchdowns. Harris hooked up with Leonard Hankerson for a 13-yard score. Kayne Farquharson had a 25-yard TD reception to finish out the scoring.

GAME 12 - NC STATE 38, MIAMI 28

SAT., NOV. 29, 2008 - CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) - Russell Wilson threw for two touchdowns and ran for a score to help NC State beat Miami 38-28. Wilson threw for 220 yards and ran for 58 more for the Wolfpack (6-6, 4-4 ACC), who pushed ahead for good late in the third quarter on Wilson's 32-yard pass to Owen Spencer. Andre Brown also scored twice and ran for 93 of the Wolfpack's 219 rushing yards against a Miami defense ranked 20th nationally. Javarris James ran for two touchdowns for the Hurricanes (7-5, 4-4), who led 21-20 midway through the third before the Wolfpack went ahead to stay. Junior tight end Dedrick Epps caught four passes for 101 yards. He tied the game in the first quarter on a 69-yard TD reception from Robert Marve. Marve and Jacory Harris combined for 269 yards passing.

GAME 13 - EMERALD BOWL - CALIFORNIA 24, MIAMI 17

SAT., DEC. 27, 2008 - AT&T PARK

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP) - Zack Follett forced a fumble by Jacory Harris deep in Miami territory with 3:28 left, and Anthony Miller scored the go-ahead touchdown on his first career catch moments later in California's 24-17 victory in the Emerald Bowl. Jahvid Best rushed for a bowl-record 186 yards and two touchdowns, yet the Golden Bears (9-4) still needed a big defensive play and an unlikely hero to hold off the Hurricanes (7-6) in front of a Bay Area crowd. Harris played well in the freshman's second career start, going 25-of-41 for 194 yards and two TDs. Harris had won 31 straight starts dating back to his high school career in South Florida. LaRon Byrd and Thearon Collier caught Harris' scoring passes for Miami, which tied it on Matt Bosher's 22-yard field goal with 9:13 to play. After Cal's Giorgio Tavecchio missed a 34-yard field goal with 4:24 left, Follett knocked the ball away from Harris while dropping the quarterback from behind on third down. Cameron Jordan recovered and returned it to the Miami 2, where Longshore connected with Miller.

CALIFORNIA 24, MIAMI 17

SAN FRANCISCO - Zack Follett forced a fumble by Jacory Harris deep in Miami territory with 3:28 left, and Anthony Miller scored the go-ahead touchdown on his first career catch moments later in California's 24-17 victory in the Emerald Bowl. Jahvid Best rushed for a bowl-record 186 yards and two touchdowns, yet the Golden Bears (9-4) still needed a big defensive play and an unlikely hero to hold off the Hurricanes (7-6) in front of a Bay Area crowd teeming with screaming Cal fans. Harris played well in the freshman's second career start, going 25-of-41 for 194 yards and two TDs. LaRon Byrd and Thearon Collier caught Harris' scoring passes for Miami, which tied it on Matt Bosher's 22-yard field goal with 9:13 to play.

BOISE, Idaho – Kirby Freeman threw for 272 yards and two long touchdowns and ran for another score, Chavez Grant made a game-saving interception with 18 seconds left, and the Hurricanes sent departing coach Larry Coker out with a dramatic 21-20 win over Nevada in the MPC Computers Bowl. Freeman threw a 78-yard touchdown pass to Sam Shields with 5:59 left in the third quarter to break what was a 14-14 tie and put the Hurricanes (7-6) ahead for good. Freeman also had a 52-yard scoring pass to Ryan Moore late in the first half. Shields caught four passes for 101 yards for Miami, while Moore made only two catches, but finished with 96 yards for the Hurricanes.

ATLANTA – Making his first career start, Matt Flynn threw for two touchdowns as No. 10 LSU defeated No. 9 Miami, 40-3 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Flynn spearheaded a 17-point outburst in the second quarter with touchdown passes of 51 yards and four yards that gave the Tigers (11-2) an 20-3 advantage at the break. He completed 13-of-22 passes for 196 yards without a turnover. On Miami's first possession, Devon Hester lined up at tailback and receiver and also took a direct snap at quarterback. Hester had two catches for 40 yards and six carries for 24 yards. Hester had a 24-yard run on the possession to set up a field goal. Jon Peattie kicked a 21-yard field goal to open the scoring in the first quarter for Miami.

ATLANTA – The Miami Hurricanes settled for the state title in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Devin Hester returned a blocked field goal 78 yards for a touchdown, Roscoe Parrish returned a punt 72 yards for a score and the 14th-ranked Hurricanes beat No. 20 Florida 27-10 at the Georgia Dome. UM earned a third consecutive "state title" by beating Florida and Florida State in the same season and extended its winning streak against the Gators to six games. Brock Berlin finished 13 of 23 for 171 yards. Miami's special teams and defense did the most damage on New Year's Eve. After a blocked punt, UM's Thomas Carroll blocked Matt Leach's 32-yard field goal try. Hester picked up the loose ball and sprinted the other way for a score. Jon Peattie also nailed a 47-yarder to give the Canes a 10-3 lead. Miami forced Florida to punt on the ensuing possession, and Parrish caught the line-drive kick and ran untouched up the seam for a 72-yard score.

MIAMI 16, FLORIDA STATE 14

MIAMI – Ninth-ranked Miami used all its energy to take a tense 16-14 victory over eighth-ranked Florida State in the FedEx Orange Bowl Classic at Pro Player Stadium, riding big performances by Jarrett Payton and Jon Peattie and a big play by D.J. Williams. The Hurricanes (11-2) defeated the Seminoles (10-3) for the fifth straight time, benefiting from a crucial missed field goal for the fifth time in the scintillating series since 1991. Xavier Beitia, who was wide left on a potential game-winning 43-yard field goal in the previous year's loss at Miami, was wide right on a 39-yarder with 5 1/2 minutes to go. Payton, who victimized FSU for 97 yards and a TD catch in a win in October, ran for 131 on 22 carries to earn Most Valuable Player honors. Peattie's career-best 51-yard field goal early in the third quarter was the only scoring in a grueling second half.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Miami's 34-game winning streak came to an end in as Ohio State defeated the Hurricanes 31-24 in double overtime to win the Fiesta Bowl and the national championship. Maurice Clarett scored his second touchdown on a five-yard run in the second overtime. Craig Krenzel had a pair of touchdown runs for the Buckeyes (14-0), who ended Miami's winning streak -- the sixth-longest in college football history -- in a game of high drama that was prolonged by a controversial pass interference call. It was the first-ever overtime in a BCS title game, despite Miami turning the ball over five times and losing Willis McGahee to a knee injury in the fourth quarter. On the final play of regulation, Todd Sievers kicked a 40-yard field goal to tie it at 17-17. Kellen Winslow Jr. caught a seven-yard TD pass from Ken Dorsey in the first overtime. A controversial pass interference penalty allowed Ohio State to tie the game. On 4th-and-goal from the 5, Glenn Sharpe batted away a pass intended for Chris Gamble. Miami began its celebration, but Sharpe was flagged. Krenzel then scored on a one-yard run.

•••NATIONAL CHAMPIONS•••

PASADENA, Calif. – The Miami Hurricanes lowered the boom on the Nebraska Cornhuskers in a decisive 37-14 victory in the 88th Rose Bowl game for the National Championship. Just four years removed from a losing season, Miami claimed its fifth national title in football and returned to the top of the college football world with an impressive performance worthy of the Hurricanes' championship heritage that placed this 2001 team as perhaps the school's best ever. Miami's 12-0 season was capped by a performance indicative of much of the Hurricanes' season, as UM piled up a huge halftime lead and cruised to the victory. The top-ranked Hurricanes used three touchdown passes by Ken Dorsey to build a big early lead. Andre Johnson caught seven passes for 199 yards and two scores for the Hurricanes, who laid claim to their first national title since 1991 in Larry Coker's first season as head coach. Dorsey and Johnson shared Most Valuable Player honors and were helped by Clinton Portis, who carried 20 times for 104 yards and a score. Dorsey completed 22-of-35 passes for 362 yards, including 258 in the first half.

JACKSONVILLE – The 23rd-ranked Hurricanes routed No. 15 Georgia Tech, 28-13, behind a dominating defensive performance that held the Yellow Jackets offense (ranked No. 1 nationally and second in scoring with an average of 40.7 points a game) to a season-low 13 points. The Hurricanes struck on their opening possession with an eight-yard James Jackson touchdown run. Miami then took a 14-point lead early in the second quarter when sophomore quarterback Kenny Kelly capped a 73-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown strike to Andre King. Following a Tech score, freshman All-America tailback Clinton Portis set a UM bowl record with a 73-yard touchdown run to give the 'Canes a 21-7 halftime lead. Georgia Tech could only muster a pair of second half field goals as the UM defense, behind the play of Gator Bowl MVP Nate Webster, shut down the Tech attack.

MIAMI – The Hurricanes won the 1996 Carquest Bowl in entertaining fashion with a 31-21 triumph over the University of Virginia. Defensive standout Tremain Mack provided the fireworks with a pair of Miami touchdowns. Mack, who was a unanimous choice for game MVP, returned a UVA fumble 79 yards for a touchdown to give UM a 14-0 first quarter lead. Mack then gave the 'Canes an insurmountable 24-7 lead when he picked off Cavalier quarterback Tim Sherman in the second quarter and raced 42 yards to paydirt. Mack continued his heroics in the third quarter by blocking a Rafeal Garcia 29-yard field goal attempt, the first of two blocked FGs by the 'Canes. Ryan Clement ignited the Hurricane offense throwing for a career-best 274 yards and one touchdown on 16-of-26 passing.

MIAMI – The No. 1-ranked Hurricanes capped a 12-0 season and claimed their fourth national championship in nine years by dominating the Big Eight Champion Nebraska Cornhuskers, 22-0, in front of an Orange Bowl crowd of 77,747 and a national television audience. Miami used the running of freshman Larry Jones, who responded with a career-high 144 yards rushing (earning him MVP honors) and a dominating defense to roll to victory. Miami played with the knowledge that earlier that day the No. 2-ranked Washington Huskies had soundly defeated the Michigan Wolverines in the Rose Bowl, and would ultimately claim a co-national championship with the Hurricanes. The Miami defense held Nebraska to a single yard of offense in the first quarter and 62 total in the first half en route to its second shutout of the year. For the game, the UM defense recorded two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and five sacks, four by sophomore Rusty Medearis.

MIAMI – For the first time in four years, Miami was not playing for the national title in its New Year's bowl game. Moments before kickoff of the 55th annual Orange Bowl Classic vs. Nebraska, the 'Canes learned that the No. 1 ranked team, Notre Dame, had defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. As the nation tuned in to the Orange Bowl, many felt the University of Miami would come out flat, knowing that all possibility of a repeat national title had been lost. UM showed its true mettle, dominating the Big Eight Champions on offense, defense, and special teams from the opening kickoff. MIAMI – For the second time in five years, the University of Miami Hurricanes were champions of the college football world. Just as they had done in 1983, the '87 'Canes knocked off the nation's No.1-ranked team in the New Year's Day Orange Bowl Classic. The second-ranked Hurricanes capped the school's second straight undefeated regular season with a 20-14 victory over Oklahoma. Sophomore quarterback Steve Walsh hit on 18-of-30 passing for 209 yards and two touchdowns. Senior fullback Melvin Bratton nearly broke a UM single game receiving mark by hauling in nine catches for 102 yards before leaving the game with a knee injury. Bernard Clark stepped into the spotlight at middle linebacker and walked away with the game's MVP award after recording 12 unassisted tackles and 14 overall stops, while the entire defensive unit limited the Sooners to just 255 yards in total offense.

TEMPE, Ariz. – A national television audience watched the "Battle For No. 1" and the Hurricanes found themselves 77 yards from the national championship with just over three minutes left to play. Vinny Testaverde engineered a thrilling drive that included a 31-yard strike to Brian Blades on a fourth-and-six play from Miami's own 27. The pass to Blades was the first of six consecutive completions by Testaverde that brought Miami to PSU's 6-yard line. However, with 18 seconds remaining, Pete Giftopoulos ended UM's drive for the national title by intercepting a Testaverde pass at the goal line. ATLANTA – The Hurricanes embarked on their first post-season bowl appearance since 1967, squaring off against Virginia Tech on a clear Georgia day at Fulton County Stadium. Howard Schnellenberger's troops set the pace early with two long scoring drives that proved to be the winning margin. UM took the opening kickoff 68 yards to paydirt, with QB Jim Kelly hitting Larry Brodsky on a 15-yard strike to culminate the nine-play drive. On Miami's third possession, Kelly connected through the air three times to spark a 10-play, 99-yard drive. Chris Hobbs did the honors with a 12-yard scamper up the middle to cap the drive. The Hokies closed the gap to 14-10 early in the second half, but two field goals by Danny Miller assured Miami of its first bowl victory since 1966. Kelly was selected the game's outstanding player on offense, while UM middle guard Jim Burt was named defensive MVP.

HOUSTON – In a wild scoring spectacle, Colorado won 31-21 after the lead had changed hands five times at Rice Stadium. In the first quarter, CU's Larry Plantz scored from seven yards out, then Miami came back with Joe Mira's score from the two. UM moved ahead moments later as Jimmy Dye stole a pass from Dan Kelly and ran 77 yards. A field goal by John Farler just before half, followed by an 80-yard TD march with the second half kickoff, put the Buffs ahead 17-14. UM regained the lead 21-17 in the fourth on an 85-yard drive sparked by Bill Miller's four completions to Jerry Daanen, the last one for a nine yard TD. History

Miami 12, Florida Southern 0, on November 6, 1926

1926-36
THE BEGINNING

Before competition even took place on a freshman level, plans for a 50,000-seat on-campus stadium were proposed in 1926 by the school's first president, Dr. Bowman Ashe. Work began on a temporary, 8,000-seat structure on campus, but one day later, on September 17, 1926, a hurricane leveled much of South Florida, killing more than 130 people, damaging over 10,000 homes and shelving plans for the stadium.

Due to the storm, classes started late and it wasn't until October 23 that UM played its first game: a 7-0 win over Rollins in front of 304 spectators. The season included two wins over the University of Havana, with a Thanksgiving Day game in Miami and a Christmas Day meeting in Cuba.

The first varsity competition came in 1927 and coach Howard Buck guided the Hurricanes to a 3-6-1 record with a 39-3 win over Rollins in the first game.

Miami first road victory

J. Burton Rix, who had coached at Texas and Southern Methodist, arrived in time for the 1929 season and Miami's first varsity road games. The team traveled via the city's private car, The Spirit of Miami on the Eastern Seaboard Railroad.

Miami's first intersectional game

An indoor contest against Temple University in Atlantic City, New Jersey. It was Miami's first intersectional game and the UM players presented their opponents with coconuts prior to the contest; in return Temple handed Miami a 34-0 defeat. Also that season, the Hurricanes played one of the nation's first night games on October 31, 1930 game vs. Bowden College in Miami.

Hurricanes First Bowl

UM entered the bowl business, upsetting Manhattan in the Palm Festival on January 1, 1933, at Moore Park in Miami. The next year, UM went 5-0-2 but lost in the Palm Festival to a Duquesne team coached by Elmer Layden (one of the famed Four Horsemen of Notre Dame).

Beginning of the Famed Orange Bowl

UM plays Bucknell on New Year's Day following the 1934 season in the Wooden Bowl. A halftime parade that included an orange-colored bowl was the humble beginning of the famed Orange Bowl extravaganzas produced by Seiler.

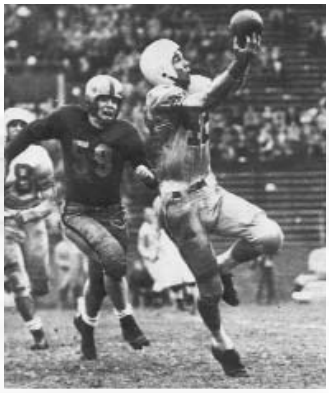
THE JACK HARDING ERA

Jack Harding comes in to serve as both head coach and athletic director in 1937. In nine seasons as head coach (with a two-year break for service in World War II), Harding moves the Hurricanes from the ranks of small time into major college status. In 1937 UM also moved into the Roddy Burdine Municipal Stadium (later renamed the Orange Bowl).

Hurricanes First Win over Gators

Miami wins the first meeting against Florida and that same year captured the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship for the first time.

Al Hudson returned an interception 89 yards for a touchdown on the last play to beat Holy Cross 13-6 in 1946 Orange Bowl Classic



Jim Dooley was Miami's 60-minute halfback from 1949-51; he started both ways as a junior and senior and was an All-American

Hurricanes during WWII

Eddie Dunn, a running back out of Pittsburgh, starred for the Hurricanes in the late '30s and took over as head coach for two years (1943-44) during World War II. When Harding returned just prior to the 1945 season, it appeared that UM would suffer through another miserable season after going 1-7-1 in 1944.

But enrollment began to swell as hundreds returned from the service. The Canes forged a 9-1-1 record that included one of the most memorable Orange Bowl games in history. On January 1, 1946, UM and Holy Cross had battled to a 6-6 tie with just a few seconds remaining. Crusader quarterback Gene DeFilippo threw a desperation pass that went in and out of the arms of an open receiver and wound up in the hands of the Hurricanes' Al Hudson. A former Miami Edison High track star, Hudson juggled the ball and sprinted 89 yards for the winning score as time ran out.

THE FIRST HERO

Eddie Dunn, a running back who served as captain of the 1938 team, is generally considered the Hurricanes' first football hero. He set several game, single-season and career records for rushing, scoring and punt returns. He became interim head coach and athletic director when Jack Harding was called to serve in World War II in 1943 and 1944.

THE ANDY GUSTAFSON ERA

In 16 seasons, Andy Gustafson's teams went to four bowls and appeared on national television nine times. He developed the "Miami Drive Series", a form of the belly option generally considered the forerunner of the wishbone and coached Al Carapella as UM's first major college All-American (1950). Gustafson's 1950 squad went 9-1-1, defeated Purdue one week after the Boilermakers had broken Notre Dame's unbeaten streak at 39 games and earned an Orange Bowl bid against Clemson.

UM's First Top 10 Ranking

A No. 9 ranking by both UP and INS in 1954 marked UM's first Top 10 ranking at the end of the season. In 1956, on the strength of an 8-1-1 mark, the Hurricanes finished sixth in all three wire service polls.

Hurricanes and Integration

UM breaks a Southern tradition by playing against African-American players in a 14-6 defeat of Iowa in the Orange Bowl.

In the late 1950s, UM had won a battle with the city to open seating to African-Americans in the entire Orange Bowl, and on January 31, 1961, the UM trustees voted unanimously to open the door to all students.

First African-American Hurricanes

In December 1966, the University of Miami signed an African-American athlete, Ray Bellamy, a 6-5, 210-pound wide receiver from Palmetto, Florida, who chose Miami over Florida State, Florida A&M and a number of major colleges in the Midwest. Miami became the second major college in the South with an African-American football player on scholarship, and Bellamy became a standout both on and off the football field. Tom Sullivan, a tailback from Jacksonville, became the second African-American signee in 1968 and was followed one year later by future pro stars Burgess Owens and Chuck Foreman.

Ted Hendricks

The Age of MIRAcles

Key West native George Mira led Miami to a pair of bowl games while twice earning All-America honors in the early '60s. Nicknamed "The Matador," Mira set nearly every passing record in the school's history, finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting as a senior and tied a national completion record (368) despite UM's 3-7 record.

1964-69
THE CHARLIE TATE ERA

Charlie Tate was tabbed as head man in early 1964 and after two years at .500 under Tate, another star emerged to lead UM to back-to-back bowl games.

Hendricks Emerges

Born in Guatemala and raised in South Florida, Ted Hendricks, nicknamed "The Mad Stork," became one of the most feared pass rushers in college football. He became the school's first and only three-time All-American (1966, 1967 and 1968).

Great Game Moments

- UM upsets Florida in Gainesville in first UM-UF contest on Oct. 15, 1938
- Miami scored 13 points in the fourth quarter to upset No. 1 Purdue, 20-14, in West Lafayette, Indiana on Oct. 14, 1950.
- The Hurricanes upset fifth-ranked Southern Cal at the Orange Bowl, 10-7 on Oct. 28, 1966.

History

Miami's all-time career rushing leader Ottis Anderson

Head coach Howard Schnellenberger

1970-78
HURRICANES FIND THEIR WAY

Five different coaches guided UM from 1970-78, with Walk Kichefski (1970), Fran Curci (1971-72), Pete Elliot (1973-74), Carl Selmer (1975-76) and Lou Saban (1977-78) combining to go 37-61 in nine seasons. Elliott had the most success of the group, going 5-6 in '73 and 6-5 in '74. During the 1974 season – one of only two winning seasons for UM in the '70's – the 'Canes won road contests at No. 19 Houston and West Virginia, in addition to picking up home victories over Virginia Tech and Syracuse. UM's other winning season of the '70's came in 1978 when Saban guided UM to 6-5 campaign with road wins at Kansas, at No. 19 Auburn and at Florida to close out the season.

The bad times were eased some when Miami pulled a stunning 14-13 upset of Florida in Gainesville.

Fifth Down Play

After three games in 1972, the Hurricanes were winless and playing at home against Tulane when a fifth down play gave Miami a 24-21 win. The Hurricanes had started with a first-and-10 from Tulane's 12-yard line late in the game. After four plays (plus a nullified penalty down), Miami was exiting the field, still trailing 21-17. But the officials called the UM offense back onto the field for another down, which resulted in a 32-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ed Carney to split end Witt Beckman.

1979-83
THE HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER ERA

In January 1979, UM hired Dolphins offensive coordinator Howard Schnellenberger as its eighth head coach since 1963. Schnellenberger installed a pro-style passing attack, and in his first year at the helm UM became known as the "Jet-Lag Kids." The team traveled more than 28,000 miles in 1979, an NCAA record, including trips to the Japan Bowl, San Diego State, Penn State and Syracuse, posting a 5-6 record.

Turning Point under Schnellenberger

A year later, Schnellenberger's Hurricanes went 8-3 and were invited to the Peach Bowl. They posted a 20-10 victory over Virginia Tech to finish 9-3 for the season. That game is cited by many as the turning point in the UM football program. UM went 9-2 in 1981 and 7-4 in 1982, both respectable seasons. Still, nobody knew what was coming next. By Schnellenberger's fifth and last season of 1983, UM had traveled even further - to the national championship of college football. Behind the passing wizardry of freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the Hurricanes upset Nebraska 31-30 in the 50th Orange Bowl Classic to cap a storybook 11-1 season and a No. 1 spot in both wire-service polls.

In May 1984, UM athletic director Sam Jankovich plucked Jimmy Johnson away from Oklahoma State. Johnson's first campaign resulted in an 8-5 record, including the "Hail Flutie" loss to Boston College and an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl.

First Heisman Winner Testaverde Leads UM

In 1986, the 60th year of UM's varsity football history, the Hurricanes fielded what many consider to be one of the best college football teams ever. Led by Miami's first Heisman Trophy winner - Vinny Testaverde - the Hurricanes swept through the regular season with a perfect 11-0 mark. Miami held down the No. 1 national ranking for 15 weeks in the fall of '86 on the strength of a record-breaking offense and the nation's No. 5 ranked defense, a unit that featured first-team All-Americans Jerome Brown and Bennie Blades.

Three Hurricanes taken in first nine picks

The Hurricanes of 1986 appeared on network TV in eight of its 12 games, and in the spring of 1987, three Hurricanes (Testaverde, Alonzo Highsmith and Eddie Brown) were selected in the first nine picks of the National Football League draft.

Second Title in '87

The Hurricanes firmly established themselves as the Team of the 1980s in 1987 by winning the school's second national championship in five years. The season was highlighted by "The Game of the Year," as it was later called, on October 3 in Tallahassee, as No. 3 Miami faced No. 4 Florida State on national television (CBS). Miami overcame a 19-3 deficit behind three Steve Walsh touchdown passes and Bubba McDowell knocked down an FSU two-point conversion attempt to preserve a 26-25 Hurricanes victory.

The First Unbeaten Set of Canes

In the 1988 Orange Bowl, Miami, for the third consecutive season dealt the powerful Sooners their only defeat of the year, 20-14. Miami completed a 12-0 season, the first undefeated record by a UM varsity team.

Blades and Stubbs Shine

At season's end, safety Bennie Blades, Miami's all-time interceptions leader, was named consensus All-American for the second straight year and in January 1988 he was named co-recipient of the Jim Thorpe Award, which honors the nation's finest defensive back. Defensive end Daniel Stubbs, Miami's all-time sack leader, also closed out his mem-and a 46-3 victory over Texas in the Mobil Cotton Bowl (UM's eighth straight New Year's Day Bowl). With its No. 3 final ranking, it became only the second team in college football history to finish No. 1, 2 or 3 for five straight seasons.

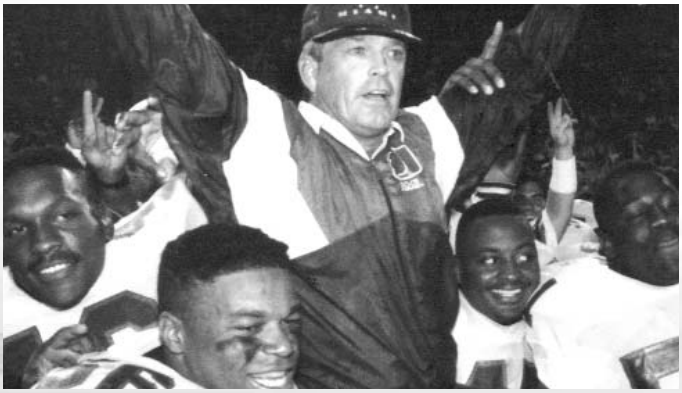
UM Joins BIG EAST Conference

Following the 1990 season, Miami officially became a charter member of the BIG EAST Football Conference, joining Boston College, Syracuse, Pittsburgh, Rutgers, Temple, Virginia Tech and West Virginia.



Coach Dennis Erickson celebrates UM's fourth national title on January 1, 1992

THE DENNIS ERICKSON ERA

Dennis Erickson of Washington State was named UM's 18th head coach on March 5, 1989. Erickson earned the distinction of being only the second Division I head coach to win a national title in his first season at a school, leading the Hurricanes to an 11-1 record and the school's third national championship in seven seasons. Truly the "Team of the '80s", Miami stormed to the crown with a 33-25 win over Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. Quarterback Craig Erickson won Sugar Bowl MVP honors.

The 1990 edition of the Hurricanes went on to set school records in total offense (482.9 yards per game) and in passing yardage (324.8 ypg). A powerful defensive unit anchored by All-Americans Russell Maryland (who went on to become the Hurricanes' first Outland Trophy winner and was the first overall pick in the NFL draft) and Maurice Crum (a Butkus Award finalist) allowed just 79.7 yards per game rushing. Miami finished the season with a 10-2 record

Undefeated Again

In 1991, Miami went 12-0 for only the second time in its history, winning the Associated Press National Championship, while Washington, which also finished 12-0, was voted National Champion by CNN/USA Today (coaches). It was the second title in Dennis Erickson's three years (a feat matched by only one other coach), the third for the school in five years, and fourth in nine.

58 in a Row

Miami opened the 1994 campaign by etching its name atop an NCAA record that may never fall. With a 56-0 victory over Georgia Southern, the Hurricanes recorded their 58th consecutive victory in the Orange Bowl, a streak that began in 1985.

After posting a road victory at Arizona State, the Canes returned home to face another Pac-10 foe, Washington. The Huskies capitalized on a series of UM miscues early in the third quarter to produce 22 points, and

1985-1994
58 GAME STREAK

Fans watch the Hurricanes win their record-setting 58th consecutive home game, 56-0, over Georgia Southern in 1994

For nearly a decade, not one opponent celebrated on the Orange Bowl field. That's because the Hurricanes won an NCAA-record 58 games in a row at home.

This streak for the ages lasted through three U.S. Presidents, two head football coaches (Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson) and even Hurricane Andrew. It began on Oct. 12, 1985, with a 38-0 rout of Cincinnati, and didn't end until Washington won 38-20 on Sept. 24, 1994.

The Hurricanes broke the record of 57 in a row set by Alabama at Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa from 1963-82. And Miami's streak was clearly more formidable.

The Crimson Tide never played a top-ranked team, didn't face arch-rivals Auburn or Tennessee, and met LSU only once during the streak because their major games were played in Birmingham. The Hurricanes defeated 17 ranked teams, including 12 in the top 10 and six in the top five.

Four times they toppled the No. 1 team – Oklahoma 28-16 in 1986; Oklahoma 20-14 in the 1988 Orange Bowl Classic; Florida State 31-0 in 1988; and Notre Dame 27-10 in 1989.

The most common opponent during the streak was Florida State, which lost four times. Notre Dame and Cincinnati each lost three times, with Notre Dame being outscored 109-17 and Cincinnati being outscored 151-3.

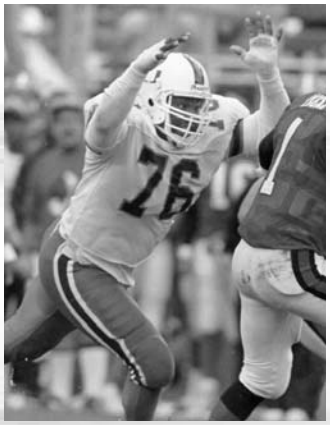
Miami was the top-ranked team 25 times during the streak. Network television carried 26 of the 58 games.

The streak leaders:

- Passing: Gino Torretta: 4,638 yards, 33 touchdowns
- Rushing: Leonard Conley, 1,245 yards
- Receiving: Michael Irvin, 78 catches, 1,316 yards
- Touchdowns Rushing: Stephen McGuire: 20
- Touchdown Receptions: Lamar Thomas: 15
- Interceptions: Bennie Blades: 12

History

Defensive Tackle Russell Maryland won the 1990 Outland Trophy



1994 Lombardi Trophy winner Warren Sapp

the Miami home win streak ended with a 38-20 defeat.

Huertas Record

Kicker Carlos Huerta set an NCAA record with 157 consecutive extra points and set or tied 13 Miami records. He finished with 397 career points, third on the NCAA career list, and was one of five UM first-team All-Americans, joining defensive back Darryl Williams, offensive lineman Leon Searcy, linebacker Darrin Smith and receiver/kick returner Kevin Williams.

White House Again

The season ended with a third visit to the White House in five years, this time to see President George H.W. Bush, following a convincing 22-0 win over Nebraska in the Federal Express Orange Bowl.

NCAA Record Set

A 41-17 defeat of Memphis State in the 1993 season finale gave the Canes their 57th consecutive home victory, tying the NCAA record set by Alabama, and sent a senior class to graduation without a loss in the Orange Bowl during their careers.

The Sapp

Defensive tackle Warren Sapp etched his name among the great defensive linemen in UM history as he was named a consensus All-American and Miami's first Lombardi Award winner in 1994.

Gino Torretta

Hurricane Andrew Strikes

The 1992 season saw the Hurricanes face a level of adversity previously unimagined. Just prior to the season, on August 24, South Florida was devastated by Hurricane Andrew causing Erickson, five other coaches and several staff and players' families to move out of their severely damaged homes. The Miami football team was forced to move nearly 200 miles north to Dodgertown in Vero Beach to complete preseason drills before playing the season opener.

The 24-7 road victory at Iowa was the first positive symbol for a ravaged Miami community. Head coach Dennis Erickson was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year, while quarterback Gino Torretta earned college football's highest individual honor, becoming Miami's second Heisman Trophy winner. Torretta became the most honored college player in history and was joined by linebackers Micheal Barrow and Darrin Smith and cornerback Ryan McNeil as first-team All-Americans.

Bernie Kosar led the upset over Nebraska on Jan. 1, 1984 as UM won its first national title

Remembering the Orange Bowl
DOUBLE FUMBLEROOSKIS

The opponent in UM's first two national championship games at the Orange Bowl Classic successfully pulled off a "fumblerooski" trick play. In 1984, Nebraska quarterback Turner Gill purposely fumbled and guard Dean Steinkuhler picked up the ball and rumbled 19 yards for its first touchdown in the Hurricanes' 31-30 victory. In 1988, Oklahoma quarterback Charles Thompson deliberately fumbled and guard Mark Huston rambled 29 yards for a touchdown. But it wasn't enough as Miami won 20-14.

Butch Davis led the team to the top including five seasons with eight or more wins.

1995-2000
THE BUTCH DAVIS ERA

Former UM assistant Butch Davis returned to Coral Gables following six seasons as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys in January of 1995.

By mid-October, Miami found itself with a 1-3 record, including a 0-1 mark in conference play, Miami regrouped and reeled off seven straight wins to finish the season with an 8-3 record. Junior middle linebacker Ray Lewis finished second in the balloting for the 1995 Butkus Award and was honored as a first-team All-American by the Associated Press.

3 for 300

The 1997 Hurricanes became the first team in the history of the program to put together three consecutive games of rushing for more than 300 yards. Miami accomplished the feat in wins over Boston College, Temple and Arkansas State. In the thrilling, double overtime victory over BC, running back Edgerrin James set what was then a Big East and University of Miami single-game rushing record with 271 yards in the 45-44 win.

Back to the Top

In 1998, the Hurricanes began their ascent back to the top of college football. A team that featured 71 sophomores and freshmen battled to a Big East Conference title showdown with Syracuse in the conference finale. Miami rebounded from a bitter defeat at Syracuse to ruin UCLA's national title hopes in the regular-season finale. In a game that was originally scheduled to be played in the Orange Bowl on September 26 but was rescheduled for December 5 as Hurricane Georges set its sights on South

Florida, Miami hosted the third-ranked Bruins and their 20-game winning streak. When Cade McNown's "Hail Mary" pass fell through the back of the end zone as time expired, fans stormed the Orange Bowl field to celebrate UM's dramatic 49-45 victory. The Hurricanes had sent notice to the college football world that the program was headed back in the right direction.

Miami finished 1998 with a 9-3 mark and a No. 20 final ranking following a 46-23 dismantling of NC State in the Micron PC Bowl at nearby Pro Player Stadium.

Back on Top

The 2000 Hurricanes tallied big victories over top-ranked Florida State and No. 2-ranked Virginia Tech on their way to being acknowledged nationally as college football's hottest team at season's end, but were not given a chance to play for the national championship. UM laid an impressive 37-20 win on Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to make a case for a fifth championship and setting the stage for another title run in 2001.

BC Comeback

The Hurricanes produced the largest comeback in UM history at Boston College in 1999, erasing a 28-0 third quarter deficit to win, 31-28. That win provided UM with momentum as the Canes would win seven of their final eight games, the only loss coming to No. 2 Virginia Tech.

Great Game Moments

- Miami defeats ninth-ranked Penn State, 26-20, on Oct. 12, 1991.
- "Wide Right I" occurs as No. 2 Miami defeats No. 1 Florida State, 17-16, in Tallahassee on Nov. 16, 1991.
- "Wide Right II" takes place a year later as No. 2 Miami knocks off No. 3 Florida State, 19-16, in the Orange Bowl on Oct. 3, 1992.
- It took eight years, but "Wide Right III" in the state's biggest rivalry happend on Oct. 7, 2000 as No. 7 Miami defeated No. 1 Florida State, 27-24, at the Orange Bowl.

2001-2006

THE LARRY COKER ERA (2001-2006)

Larry Coker led Miami to its fifth national championship in the 2002 Rose Bowl to win the BCS National Championship.

Larry Coker was named as UM's 19th head football coach on February 3, 2001. The 2001 season started with Coker facing coaching legend Joe Paterno and the Penn State Nittany Lions. A crowd of 109,313 – the largest ever for a Miami game – watched the Hurricanes open the season with a resounding statement. Miami raced to a 30-0 halftime lead on the way to a 33-7 victory before a national television audience. Quarterback Ken Dorsey orchestrated a 344-yard passing performance and the Hurricanes were stifling on defense in the victory.

Ken Dorsey

"Break History and Make History"

The Seminoles were riding a 54-game home unbeaten streak (37 straight wins), and had not lost on their home turf since a UM victory in 1991. Miami's mission to "Break History and Make History" was accomplished in spectacular fashion with a 49-27 defeat of the Seminoles. Another national television audience watched the Hurricanes' defense cause six FSU turnovers. Miami scored via offense, defense and special teams en route to one of its largest points-total ever against the Seminoles, a victory that returned UM to the top of the rankings.

No. 5 Takes the Rose

The Rose Bowl game hosted the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) title game for the first time, the first time in 56 years that teams from conferences other than the Pacific Ten Conference and the Big Ten Conference were competing in the game. Miami left little doubt about which team was college football's best, racing to a 34-0 halftime lead behind a huge first half performance by game co-MVPs Dorsey and Andre Johnson. Dorsey and Johnson connected for two touchdowns and 199 yards in the game with Dorsey throwing for a career-best 362 yards. Portis added another score on a brilliant 39-yard touchdown run and the Hurricanes were able to enjoy the second half of their national title victory. Miami's fifth national title team in 19 years ranked among its most dominating, setting a school and Big East record with 475 points in the regular season. Miami's 37-point outburst in the Rose Bowl gave the team 512 points overall. In Big East games, the 2001 Hurricanes scored 290 points, second to 2000's 310. During the 2001 regular season, UM outscored its opponents by an average margin of 43.2 to 9.4. The total included a 239-33 (21.7-3.0) advantage in the first half and 236-70 (21.5-6.36) mark in the second half.

Coker Makes History

Coker became the first rookie head coach to lead his team to a national title since 1948. He earned two national Coach of the Year honors, winning the "Bear" Bryant Award from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, and sharing the American Football Coaches' Association honor with Maryland's Ralph Friedgen.

Lopsided Win in the Swamp

The first regular-season meeting between UM and UF in 16 years was a matchup of a pair of teams ranked in the nation's top 10 in 2002. The top-ranked Hurricanes dominated the sixth-ranked Gators with an impressive show of offensive versatility and defensive force in a stunningly easy 41-16 victory. The outcome was the most lopsided UF home loss in more than 20 years. Quarterback Ken Dorsey threw for four touchdowns, tailback Willis McGahee rushed for 204 yards and the Miami defense created three turnovers.

Just Shy of No. 6

The Hurricanes had earned a shot at their sixth national title with a berth in the 2003 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl where they would face Ohio State in Tempe, Ariz., and the matchup provided one of college football's most dramatic games. Miami overcame a 17-7 second-half deficit to tie the game when Todd Sievers nailed a 40-yard field goal as time expired. Miami took the lead 24-17 in the first overtime when Dorsey connected with tight end Kellen Winslow for a score. Ohio State responded with a touchdown to send it to a second overtime, a score made possible by a controversial pass interference call in the end zone on a fourth-down play that kept the Buckeyes' drive alive. OSU took a 31-24 lead, a lead they held when Miami's final possession ended on an incompletion from the two-yard line on fourth down.

Rally against the Gators

Miami opened with Florida in 2004 and fell behind the Gators 33-10 midway through the third quarter. A packed house at the Orange Bowl was in disbelief but the Hurricanes rallied behind the hot hand of quarterback Brock Berlin who compiled one of the most amazing performances in Miami history in the second half. Berlin led Miami to a 38-33 comeback win by completing 19 of his final 21 passes over the game's final 21 minutes, leading four touchdown drives and taking the Hurricanes to the winning score with just over a minute remaining.

Miami closed its season in the FedEx Orange Bowl against rival Florida State. The unusual rematch played out much like the first meeting after Miami fell behind early. After trailing 14-3 early in the second quarter, Miami physically took over the game with its running game to mount a comeback. Jarrett Payton rushed for 131 yards on 22 carries to earn game Most Valuable Player honors. His 46-yard run set up Miami's first touchdown. Jon Peattie nailed three field goals and Miami's defense held FSU to 206 total yards while limiting Chris Rix to 6-of-19 passing for only 96 yards. A missed FSU field goal attempt in the fourth period continued Miami's roll in the series, as the Hurricanes ended 2003 with a five-game win streak over their rivals from Tallahassee.

Eight Hurricanes earned first-team All-Big East honors in 2003, led by Conference Defensive Player of the Year Sean Taylor. Taylor and tight end Kellen Winslow were consensus first-team All-Americans while linebacker Jonathan Vilma was mentioned on several All-America squads and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. Winslow continued Miami's string of award winners as he was named winner of the John Mackey Award as college football's top tight end.

Hurricanes Join the ACC

After having six players selected in the first round of the NFL draft in April, the most ever of any college, the Hurricanes embarked on their first season as members of the Atlantic Coast Conference. UM played on Labor Day night against Florida State in the Orange Bowl in front of a nationally televised ABC audience. However, the arrival of another Hurricane – this one called Hurricane Francis – closed down the campus and delayed the game four days. On September 10, a Friday night, the Hurricanes hosted the Seminoles and were trailing 10-3 in the fourth quarter. With 4:09 remaining, the Seminoles attempted a 34-yard field goal that would have iced the victory. But Devin Hester blocked the kick, giving the Hurricanes a chance. Not long after, Brock Berlin led Miami on an 80-yard drive, throwing a 30-yard touchdown pass to Sinorice Moss with 30 seconds remaining. The game went into overtime and Miami's momentum held. The Hurricanes forced a fumble on Florida State's first possession, and two plays later Frank Gore scored on an 18-yard run for a 16-10 victory.

Remembering the Orange Bowl

THE "SMOKE"

The traditional "smoke" entrance by the Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl was the brainchild of UM transportation director Bob Nalette. He developed the idea of using fire extinguishers to produce the now famous "smoke" the players run through as they enter the field.

Randy Shannon leads Miami onto the field for the first time against Marshall.

Safety Kenny Phillips kept Miami's 14-year streak alive of producing a first round NFL draft pick when he was taken by the New York Giants as the 31st overall pick in 2008.

2007-present
THE RANDY SHANNON ERA

The Randy Shannon era began on Sept. 1, 2007, with the Hurricanes knocking off Marshall, 31-3, to jumpstart a 2007 season that was a building year for the mighty Hurricanes. One of the two highlight games of the 2007 season occurred on a Thursday night at the Orange Bowl, as a stifling Miami defense wreaked havoc on Texas A&M's triple-option attack, limiting one the nation's top rushing teams to less than 100 yards on the ground. The Hurricanes' offense moved through the air and on the ground as Miami won, 34-17.

Miami had a thrilling 37-29 win at in-state rival Florida State. The Hurricanes showed the ability to rally late – using a late touchdown pass in the closing minutes and a fumble return to seal the win. UM closed the Orange Bowl with a loss to Virginia.

In his second season, Shannon guided the Hurricanes to the program's 34th bowl appearance as UM played California in the 2008 Emerald Bowl. Miami also made Dolphin Stadium its new home when it opened up the season with a 52-7 win over Charleston Southern. UM went on to win seven games in 2008, which included a five-game win streak (UCF, Duke, Wake Forest, Virginia and Virginia Tech). Freshman linebacker Sean Spence was named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year. Kicker/punter Matt Bosher was given the Jack Harding MVP Award and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award.

Aldarius Johnson caught the winning touchdown in an overtime win at Virginia in 2008 .

Matt Bosher was the first kicker to earn the Jack Harding Team MVP award. Bosher was a Lou Groza Award semifinalist and earned second team All-ACC honors.

Postseason under Shannon

Miami's hiatus from postseason was shortlived as Randy Shannon's first bowl appearance as a head coach came true in 2008 after a one-year hiatus in 2007. The Hurricanes used a a gutsy come-from-behind performace led by freshman quarterback Jacory Harris to knock off Virginia in overtime giving UM its sixth win of the season. Miami became bowl eligible with a Thursday night win over Virginia Tech. Miami went on to take on California in the 2008 Emerald Bowl.

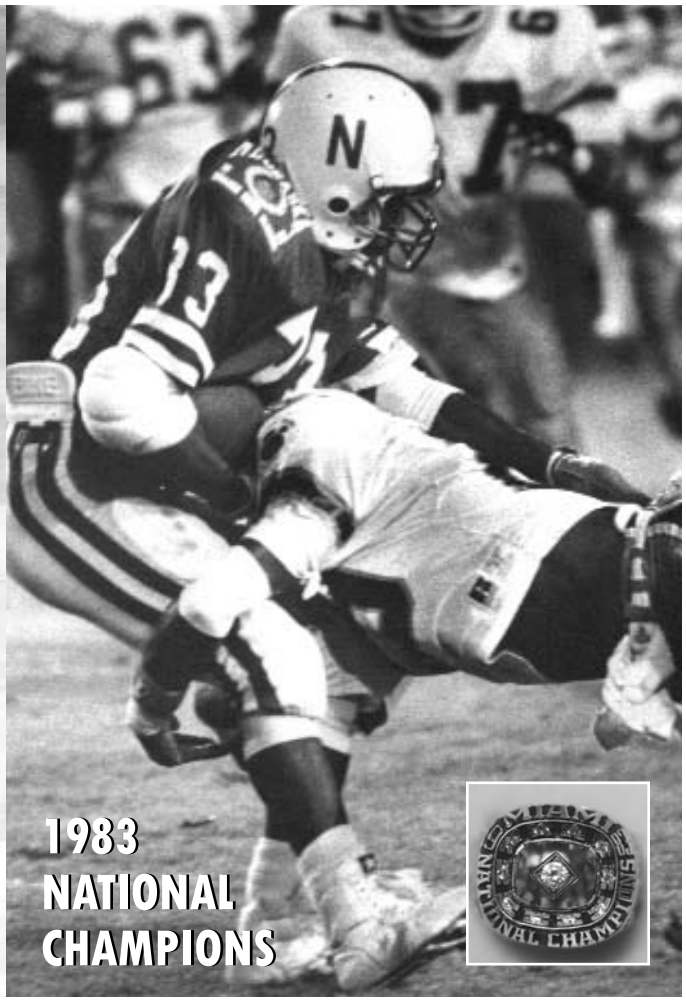
Coaches Tom Osborne of Nebraska and Howard Schnellenberger of UM meet before the 1984 Orange Bowl Classic



The Miracle in Miami

Less than a decade removed from a period of uncertainty in which there was open talk of dropping the football program, the University of Miami Hurricanes stunned the college football world by defeating the top-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers, 31-30, in the 1984 Orange Bowl Classic on January 1, 1984.

The victory was monumental – for UM football and for college football in general. Monumental not only because the Cornhuskers were widely considered to be among the most powerful teams in college football history, but it also heralded the dawn of a new dynasty in the sport from a program that had been all but dead just a few short years earlier. That victory - combined with losses by second-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl and Illinois in the Rose Bowl - vaulted the Hurricanes into the top spot in the final national rankings.

This was the first national title team without a single player making an All-America first team voted by AP, UPI, the Football Writers Association or the College Football Coaches Association.

One of the keys was a melting pot offensive line – a Canadian (center Ian Sinclair), a Cuban-American (guard Juan Comendeiro), an African-American (guard Alvin Ward), an Italian-American (tackle Paul Bertucelli) and an Irish-American (tackle Dave Hefferman).

Miami was only the second national title team to gain more passing yards than rushing yards.

"It's a tribute to a lot of gutty players and a real team effort," head coach Howard Schnellenberger said. "We've got a lot of overachievers on our team – or else there has been a poor job of selection done by the All-American selectors."

Dominance From Start to Finish

The Hurricanes were supposed to be rebuilding. Reloading was more accurate. This Miami team was supposed be the lull before the storm of 1988 and 1989. After all, the Hurricanes had lost five starters on offense from a team that had come within a whisper of a national title in 1985 and a 1986 squad that was considered among the best ever, only to lose its title shot in the Fiesta Bowl.

But this team was more offensively balanced than the previous season's juggernaut and, with nine starters returning to an underrated defense, the Hurricanes were a more well-rounded team altogether. Ranked 10th in the preseason Associated Press rankings, this team quickly showed it would be better than advertised.

Miami ripped rival Florida in the season opener, then embarrassed Arkansas on the Razorbacks' home field. The season's third game was a classic. Being dominated by fourth-ranked Florida State, 19-3, late in the third quarter, Miami launched one of its greatest comebacks. The Hurricanes scored three lightning-quick touchdowns: a 49-yard bomb from Steve Walsh to Melvin Bratton, a 26-yarder from Walsh to Michael Irvin (plus a two-point conversion to tie it at 19), then a 73-yard strike from Walsh to Irvin for the lead with 2:22 remaining. Miami would have to stop an FSU two-pointer to hold for a 26-25 victory.

There seemed to be no stopping these Hurricanes after that. Miami rolled through the remainder of the regular season, ripping 10th-ranked Notre Dame (24-0) and surviving a scare from eighth-ranked South Carolina (20-16) to set up a matchup with top-ranked Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl Classic on New Year's Day.

The Hurricanes bottled up OU's wishbone attack, holding the Sooners to just 179 yards on the ground (OU came in averaging 428.8). Elation for Miami was frustration for OU – the Sooners only three losses over the last three seasons had come to the Hurricanes.

"We played our way to this championship. We have the best record versus anybody in the country . . . We beat Oklahoma three in a row, Florida State and Notre Dame three in a row, Florida a couple . . . What is sweetest is that we did it as a team. We lost starters and had other guys come in and played magnificently."

Two Ericksons and a Tenacious "D"

By the time head coach Dennis Erickson arrived in Coral Gables to take over the UM football program prior to the 1989 season, Miami football had established itself as the "Team of the '80s". With a new coaching staff in place, Miami switched to a one-back offense, but the Hurricanes remained in their trademark 4-3 defense and had the talent on both sides of the ball to maintain their level of excellence. Twelve starters returned, but the loss of quarterback Steve Walsh, running back Cleveland Gary, linebacker Randy Shannon and cornerback Bubba McDowell would be felt. Nonetheless, the Hurricanes reloaded and ran off six victories to start the season.

Quarterback Craig Erickson was lost for three games in the middle of the season – including a 24-10 loss at Florida State – before returning and leading the Hurricanes on an impressive stretch run. Miami's defense didn't allow a touchdown for one 10-quarter stretch during the regular season, held six opponents without a touchdown and allowed just 9.3 points per game. Miami rebounded from the FSU loss to whip their remaining opponents by an average margin of 18 points, including a 27-10 trouncing of defending national champion and top-ranked Notre Dame (27-10), ending the Irish's 23-game win streak (the seventh season in a row in which UM had defeated a No. 1-ranked team). That victory clinched a Sugar Bowl berth against seventh-ranked Alabama. Miami dispatched Alabama by a deceptively close 33-25 score in New Orleans and moved into the top spot of the rankings when Notre Dame knocked off top-ranked Colorado in the Orange Bowl, giving the Hurricanes their third national title in seven seasons.

Gino, The Ruthless Posse and Wide Right I

A combustible offense, a rock-solid defense and the nation's best special teams – by 1991 all these traits had become synonymous with Miami football and this team represented the zenith of its era. Quarterback Gino Torretta, a group of skill players nicknamed "The Ruthless Posse," and a linebacker corps that ranks among the greatest ever assembled, led these Hurricanes.

Miami started the season by ripping Arkansas on the road and dominating a Houston offense that had terrorized opponents for four seasons up to that game. Their first stiff challenge came against Penn State on October 12 and the Hurricanes, behind staunch defense and big plays by Horace Copeland (80-yard scoring catch) and Kevin Williams (91-yard punt return for a TD) held off the Nittany Lions.

Two challenges in November punctuated the season. First was the annual grudge match in Tallahassee against Florida State. In what became known as "Wide Right I" the Hurricanes erased a 16-7 deficit in the final period on a 45-yard field goal by Carlos Huerta and a one-yard run by Larry Jones with 3:01 left to take a 17-16 lead. FSU marched down for a potential game-winning field goal in the closing seconds, but Gerry Thomas' 34-yard attempt was wide right.

Miami escaped another close call a week later, slipping by Boston College on the road. The Hurricanes defense held off a late BC drive in the final seconds to preserve the 19-14 victory. A blowout of San Diego State clinched an Orange Bowl berth.

With their fourth national title in their sights, the Hurricanes stymied the Huskers' offense as few had, limiting the Nebraska ground game to just 82 rushing yards and throwing a shutout of the Big Eight Conference champions.

The victory gave Miami the national title in the Associated Press rankings. The Hurricanes shared overall national honors with Rose Bowl champ Washington, which nudged ahead in the coaches' poll.

"To win one national championship is amazing. For guys to win their second in three years, that hasn't been accomplished by many. That's what makes this championship special. And it came in a situation where we had not been picked to be that good. Some people said we'd be No. 3 in the state of Florida."

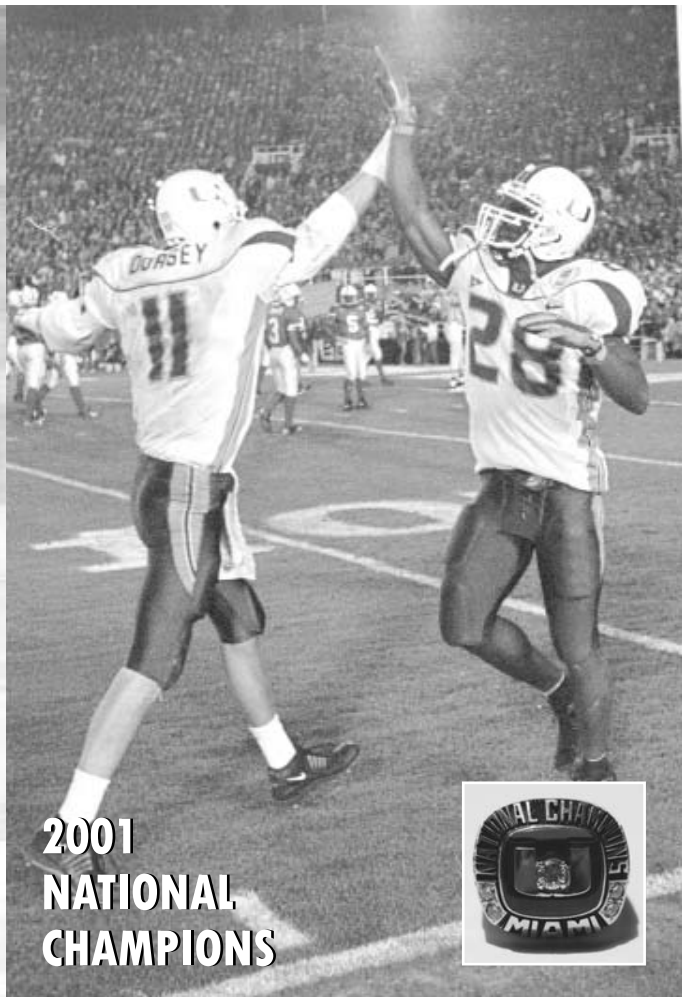
Ken Dorsey



Character, Class and Poise = Championship

The Hurricanes' fifth national championship may have been the program's most rewarding. A veteran senior class that had endured the shame of a losing season in 1997 and had rebuilt the program – inside and out – led this team. Miami returned to the top in 2001 by showing character, class and poise.

How good was this team? Many argue it may have been the greatest college football team ever assembled. This team beat opponents by the largest average margin in UM history (33.2 points per game), produced the biggest two-game whippings of any pair of ranked teams in history by defeating Syracuse and Washington by a combined 124-7, set a new UM record for scoring and featured a defense that scored eight touchdowns and led the nation in pass defense, scoring defense and turnover margin.

Throw in a kicking game that featured one of the nation's finest punters and a placekicker that led the nation in field goals and it's hard to argue against the 2001 edition. An astounding seven Hurricanes were named to at least one All-America team's first unit. Six players were finalists for national awards, led by Outland Trophy winner Bryant McKinnie at offensive tackle and Maxwell Award winning quarterback Ken Dorsey.

The 2001 Hurricanes started with a stunning rout of Penn State on the road before the largest crowd (109,313) ever to see a Miami game. They ended Florida State's 54-game unbeaten streak in Tallahassee with a resounding 49-27 whipping.

The stars were numerous. On offense: quarterback Ken Dorsey, tailback Clinton Portis (1,200 yards rushing), tight end Jeremy Shockey, an offensive line that allowed an incredibly low two sacks by the starting unit, a receivers corps led by Andre Johnson, a defensive line in which nine players could play without losing a step led by William Joseph, a linebacker corps that developed into a force and a secondary that was the nation's best, led by safety Edward Reed and cornerbacks Mike Rumph and Phillip Buchanon.

The power of this team was evident for all to see in its Rose Bowl rout of Nebraska for the national title. Miami roared to a 34-0 halftime lead, erasing any doubts about what team was college football's best in 2001.

National Award Winners

- Second Hurricanes' quarterback to earn the Johnny Unitas Award, capping a brilliant 1992 season with the honor.
- Dominated the Heisman voting and became the most decorated football player in Miami history taking every award available to him in '92: the Maxwell Award (best overall player), Davey O'Brien Award (top quarterback), Unitas Award (top senior quarterback), consensus All-American, and every Player of the Year Award. As a senior, threw for 3,060 yards while completing almost 57 percent of his pass attempts.
- Exceeded 300 yards passing five times, including a 433-yard effort against Iowa in the season opener.
- Very efficiencient quarterback who threw only seven interceptions in 402 pass attempts while throwing 19 touchdown passes.
- Led the Hurricanes to a perfect 12-0 record in the regular season on the way to a No. 1 ranking and a Sugar Bowl berth.
- The Pinole, California, product rewrote the Miami record books during a spectacular senior season where he left UM with 11 records to his name, including career marks for passing yards (7,690), pass completions (555) and total offense (7,722 yards). He also set a record for consecutive passes thrown without an interception (123).
- Joined former Hurricane Vinny Testaverde (1986) as a Davey O'Brien Award winner. Both Steve Walsh (1988) and Craig Erickson (1990) were runners-up in their respective years.

National Award Winners

- Joined Russell Maryland (1990) as an Outland Trophy winner given annually to the nation's top lineman.
- Capped an impressive career when he beat out Nebraska offensive guard Toniu Fonoti and 2000 Outland Trophy winner John Henderson of Tennessee for the award.
- McKinnie, a 6-foot-9, 336-pound senior from Woodbury, N.J., never allowed a sack during his college career and anchored a line which averaged 5.5 yards per rushing attempt on the way to an undefeated season and the national championship.
- Hallmark performance came when he dominated Syracuse All-America defensive end Dwight Freeney in Miami's 59-0 victory, holding Freeney without a quarterback sack in 52 plays, setting the pace for an offense that rushed for a season-best 331 yards and accumulated 566 yards against the Orangemen.
- Played two seasons after transferring from Lackawanna Junior College prior to sitting out the 1999 season as a redshirt.
- Made a name for himself in Miami's 27-24 victory over Florida State at the Orange Bowl when he shut down FSU's Jamal Reynolds who managed just one assisted tackle in the game. Reynolds was a first-team All-American, the Lombardi winner and a first-round NFL draft pick.

- Became the first University of Miami player to win the Rimington Trophy in 2002.
- Contributed in Miami's 34-game winning streak from 2000 to 2002 as the center.
- Had the versatility to play effectively at guard or tackle, but settled in as the center for his sophomore season in 2000.
- Helped the Hurricanes win 35 of 37 games, one National Championship, three BIG EAST Conference championships, a Sugar Bowl and a Rose Bowl during his career - all with Romberg calling the blocking signals for the offensive line.
- Never allowed a quarterback sack at center and led an offensive line that helped produce three 1,000-yard rushers (James Jackson, Clinton Portis and Willis McGahee), a quarterback (Ken Dorsey) who set every major UM career passing record and an offense that averaged more than 465 yards per game for the balance of his three years as the starting center.
- The Dave Rimington Trophy is one of college football's newest annual awards, given each year since 1999 to college football's outstanding center. It is hosted by the Boomer Esiason Foundation for research and treatment of cystic fibrosis.

National Award Winners

- Became the first player in Miami history to win the John Mackey Award.
- The Nassau County Sports Commission presents the prestigious John Mackey Award annually to the most outstanding tight end in Division I-A College Football.
- At 6-foot-5, 245-pounds, led the team with 60 catches and was second on the team with 605 receiving yards, averaging 10.1 yards per catch and 46.5 yards per game as a junior.
- Led or tied for the team lead in receptions in nine games in 2003 and broke the UM record for career receptions by a tight end with 119.
- In his biggest game of the season and the second biggest of his career, pulled in 10 catches for 104 yards against West Virginia, including a leaping catch over the middle on a critical fourth and 13 that led to Miami's game-winning field goal in the final seconds against the Mountaineers.
- Made seven catches for 106 yards in the Hurricanes' 22-14 win at Florida State, despite playing in a torrential downpour on a rain-soaked field.
- Stood out as a big-play performer on special teams, blocking a punt against Syracuse.
- Impressed with his blocking ability on offense and special teams in a UM win over Pittsburgh, throwing a key block to spring tailback Jason Geathers for a 78-yard gain on a screen pass that set up a Miami touchdown.
- Following his junior season, was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the first round as the sixth overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft.

- Named winner of the "Academic Heisman," the HealthSouth Draddy Award, in a ceremony honoring 16 national scholar-athletes at the National Football Foundation's 44th Annual Awards dinner in New York City.
- One of the nation's top offensive tackles and a major factor in an offensive line that yielded only three quarterback sacks in 2000.
- The 6-foot-6, 298-pound Dean's List member was a three-time Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Team member, being named to the First Team in 2000.
- Was a four-time BIG EAST Academic All-Conference selection and an Iron Arrow inductee in 2000 (the highest academic honor bestowed to any UM student or staff member).
- Received a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration in May of 2001 and received a Master's of Business Administration in December of 2001.
- Named a First Team All-America twice by The Football Writers Association in 2000 and 2001.
- Named a second-team All-America numerous times.
- Selected to the First Team All-BIG EAST Team in both 2000 and 2001 and was the BIG EAST Rookie of the Year in 1998 - the first recipient of the award to earn All-Conference Academic honors in the same season.

Jack Harding MVP Award

- Each season the players and coaches of the University of Miami football team select a most valuable player, to be awarded the Jack Harding MVP Award at the annual football banquet. In 2008, kicker and punter Matt Bosher was presented the honor.
- Presented since 1964, this honor is the highest performance-based award a Hurricanes player can attain from his teammates. The award is named for former UM head coach and athletic director Jack Harding, who coached the Hurricanes' football team from 1937-42 and 1945-47. Harding relinquished his coaching duties after the 1947 season and took over as athletic director, a post he held until his death in 1963.
- As football coach, Harding oversaw the program's rise into a major program. His 1938 team was his best, traveling to Gainesville and handing Florida an upset loss in the first meeting between the schools. His teams posted major intersectional wins over Michigan State, Auburn, North Carolina State, Clemson and Florida that put Miami football "on the map."
- A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Harding was an accomplished athlete in his own right, lettering in football for legendary coaches Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland, in addition to earning varsity letters in baseball and basketball.

1997 INDUCTEES

The first four inductees into the University of Miami Football Ring of Honor – quarterback George Mira (1961-63), halfback Jim Dooley (1949-51), defensive end Ted Hendricks (1966-68) and quarterback Vinny Testaverde (1982-86) – were recognized on November 1, 1997, during halftime of the Miami vs. Arkansas State game. In addition to their names adorning the facade of the Orange Bowl, these four former Hurricanes had their jerseys retired at the ceremony. They are the only football jersey numbers retired by the University of Miami.

Ring of Honor

EDGERRIN JAMES, RB, 1996-98 (2008 INDUCTEE)

Edgerrin James played running back at UM from 1996-1998. Cousin of UM running back Javarris James, he was named first team All-American in 1998 before he was taken in the first round of the 1999 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. James was selected to the NFL Pro Bowl on four occasions and twice led the NFL in rushing. In nine full NFL seasons, James has seven 1,000-yard years, including a career-high 1,709 in 2000 with the Colts. For his UM career, James finished with 2,960 yards on the ground, the second-highest total in school history behind fellow Ring of Honor member Ottis Anderson.

JIM KELLY, QB, 1979-82 (2008 INDUCTEE)

Jim Kelly was a star quarterback at UM from 1979-82 and was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1992. Kelly, who was a Heisman Trophy candidate at UM before separating his shoulder his senior season, went on to enjoy a stellar pro football career that led to his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2002. After a short stint in the USFL after college, Kelly was drafted in the first round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills and would go on to be selected to the NFL Pro Bowl on five occasions. He holds nearly every Bills' career passing record, including attempts (4,779), completions (2,874), yards (35,467) and passer rating (60.14%).

CORTEZ KENNEDY, DT, 1998-89 (2008 INDUCTEE)

Cortez Kennedy played defensive tackle for the Hurricanes from 1988-89 before being chosen in the first round of the 1990 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks. Kennedy played exclusively for the Seahawks at the professional level and was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 1992. He was selected to the NFL Pro Bowl on eight occasions and was named First Team All-Pro three times before retiring from the league in 2000. Kennedy finished his professional career with 167 games played, 568 tackles, 58 sacks and 11 forced fumbles. In 1994, Kennedy was inducted in the UM Sports Hall of Fame.

JIM OTTO, C, 1957-59 (2008 INDUCTEE)

Jim Otto played center for the Hurricanes from 1957-59 and was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1972 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980. A 12-time Pro Bowl selection from 1961-72, Otto was taken in the first round of the 1960 AFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders, a team he spent his entire career with until his retirement in 1974. He was one of only three players who saw action in each of his team's 140 regular season games over the AFL's 10-year history. Otto played in six AFL/AFC title games, Super Bowl II and was named All-Pro 13 straight seasons from 1960-72.

GINO TORRETTA, QB, 1989-92 (2008 INDUCTEE)

Gino Torretta played quarterback for UM from 1989-92 and was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 2003 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008. As a senior, Torretta joined fellow UM quarterback Vinny Testaverde in elite company when he was awarded the 1992 Heisman Trophy. That season, Torretta threw for 3,060 yards and 19 touchdowns while completing 57 percent of his passes. In addition to winning the Heisman Trophy in 1992, Torretta also won the Maxwell Award, the O'Brien Award, the Unitas Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award. Torretta played in the NFL for six different clubs, retiring in 1997.

OTTIS ANDERSON, RB, 1975-78 (1999 INDUCTEE)

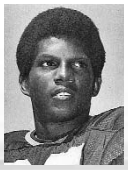
Ottis Anderson became the first player in Miami history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season (1978). Anderson is the Hurricanes' all-time career rushing leader (3,331) and in 1978, he posted the third-highest single-season rushing total in school history with 1,266 yards on the ground. He was a first-round pick of the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1979 NFL Draft and was selected to the Pro Bowl his first two pro seasons (1979 and 1980). He spent his 14-year NFL career with the Cardinals and the New York Giants, recording 10,273 career rushing yards and 86 total touchdowns. He joined the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1990.

DON BOSSELER, FB, 1953-56 (1999 INDUCTEE)

Don Bosseler played fullback at UM from 1953-56 and was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1970. He finished his career with 1,642 rushing yards, which at the time ranked second all-time in school history. Bosseler was an All-American at UM in 1956 and a first-round draft pick of the Washington Redskins in 1957. He played all eight seasons of his professional career with the Redskins, rushing for 3,112 yards and scoring 22 touchdowns from 1957-1964. He was a Pro Bowl selection in 1959 and in 1990, was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

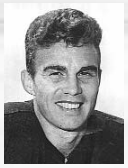
BERNIE KOSAR, QB, 1982-84 (1999 INDUCTEE)

Bernie Kosar was instrumental in the University of Miami becoming known as "Quarterback U". As a freshman, Kosar guided the Hurricanes to their first of five National Championships in 1983. In 1985, he was chosen in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns, a team he spent nine seasons with. He finished his 12-year professional career with 23,301 yards passing and 124 touchdowns. In 1993, Kosar was a member of the Super Bowl XXVIII champion Dallas Cowboys. He holds a number of single-season records at UM, including pass attempts (416), pass completions (262) and passing yards (3,642). In 1995, Kosar was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame and in 1998, he joined the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame.



BURGESS OWENS, DB, 1970-72 (1999 INDUCTEE)

Burgess Owens patrolled the Miami secondary from 1970-72, earning All-American honors in 1972. Owens finished his UM career with 160 tackles, eight interceptions and three fumble recoveries. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1973 Senior Bowl and went on to be a first-round draft pick of the New York Jets in 1973. Owens, who joined the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1982, played 10 years at the professional level and was a starting safety on the Oakland Raiders' Super Bowl XV title team. For his career, he recorded 30 interceptions, including a career-high six in 1979.



JIM DOOLEY, HB, 1949-51(1997 INDUCTEE)

Jim Dooley started on both sides of the football as a junior and senior at Miami. An All-American in 1951 and first player to have his jersey retired at UM, Dooley ranks third in school history with 17 career interceptions. A first round draft pick of the Chicago Bears in 1952, Dooley recorded 3,172 yards receiving in eight seasons with the Bears. After his playing career ended in 1961, Dooley went in to coaching and served as head coach of the Bears from 1968-71. He finished his UM career with 1,029 yards rushing and 250 yards receiving and still holds a UM bowl record with a four-interception performance against Clemson in the 1952 Orange Bowl. He joined the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1972.

GEORGE MIRA, QB, 1961-63 (1997 INDUCTEE)

George Mira, Sr. was a two-time All-American at Miami in 1962 and 1963. He led the `Canes to a pair of bowl games and set nearly every passing record at Miami at the time. One of only four players to have their jersey retired at UM, Mira threw for 348 yards during a snow storm against Nebraska in Yankee Stadium's 1962 Gotham Bowl. He also finished fifth in the 1962 Heisman Trophy balloting and was selected in the second round of the 1964 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Mira, who was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1973, played seven years in the NFL with the 49ers, Eagles and Dolphins.

TED HENDRICKS, DE, 1966-68 (1997 INDUCTEE)

Ted Hendricks was one of the most feared pass rushers in college football during his time. UM's only three-time All-American (1966, '67 & '68), Hendricks finished his Hurricane career as the leading all-time tackler and was voted fifth in the 1968 Heisman Trophy balloting. In his three seasons at UM, Hendricks recorded 318 tackles and had two interceptions and 12 fumble recoveries. Hendricks was Miami's second inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining fellow Ring of Honor member Jim Otto (1980) in 1990. He was selected in the second round of the 1969 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts. Hendricks, who was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1980, is one of four UM players all-time to have their jersey retired.

VINNY TESTAVERDE, QB, 1982-86 (1997 INDUCTEE)

Vinny Testaverde rewrote nearly every Miami passing and total offense record en route to winning the University of Miami's first Heisman Trophy in 1986. He played in only one losing regular-season game and was a consensus All-American selection in 1986. He completed 413 of 674 career passing attempts for 6,058 yards and 48 touchdowns in two years as the Miami starting quarterback. He led the Hurricanes to back-to-back New Year's Day Bowl games at the Sugar and Fiesta Bowls in 1985 and 1986 respectively. Testaverde, who was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1998, is one of four Hurricanes to have their jersey retired, along with George Mira, Jim Dooley and Ted Hendricks. Taken as the No. 1 overall pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1987 NFL Draft, Testaverde posted a stellar 21-year pro career with seven different NFL teams. For his pro career, Testaverde played in 233 games and passed for 46,233 yards and 275 touchdowns.

UM Athletic Hall of Fame

The University of Miami Athletics Hall of Fame was officially created on April 13, 1966. Several judges of the Circuit Court of Dade County, all of whom were UM Alumni, spearheaded the Hall's creation as a method of recognizing "those who have contributed most to Hurricane athletics over the years."

The 2008 inductees were: Woody Austin(golf), Octavia Blue(women's basketball), Patt Burrell (baseball), Jeff Feagles(football), Randal Hill(football), K.C. Jones(football), Wendy Williams(women's diving), and Mike Wittman(men's basketball).

With the 2008 class, there have been 344 inductees into the Hall. The Hall of Fame is housed on the UM campus adjacent to the Hecht Athletic Center.

LARGEST ROAD CROWDS

A crowd of 109,313, the largest crowd ever to witness a University of Miami football game watched the Hurricanes defeat Penn State, 33-7, at Beaver Stadium in State College, Penn., on September 1, 2001. That gathering is one of four crowds of more than 100,000 fans to have attended a game involving the Hurricanes. Miami played at Tennessee on Nov. 9, 2002, before a crowd of 107,745 at Neyland Stadium in Knoxville. The other two contests were played at the University of Michigan in 1984 and 1988. A crowd of 105,834 watched the Hurricanes play Michigan at Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor, Mich., on September 17, 1988. The Hurricanes won, 31-30, following a dramatic fourth-quarter rally. In 1984, 105,403 watched Michigan defeat Miami, 22-14. Miami is 3-1 all-time before crowds of more than 100,000.

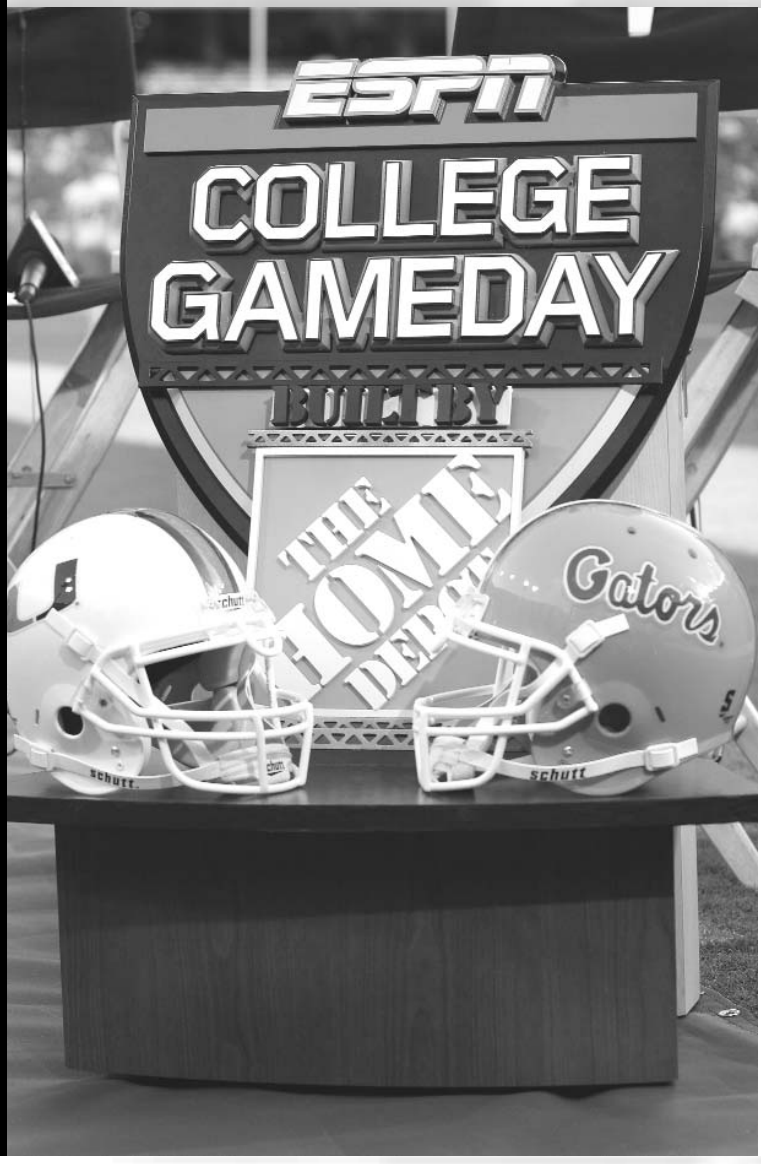
Canes in the Media

Miami football has always been a popular choice among local and national media. With constant visibility, millions of college football fans throughout the country watch, read and listen about Hurricanes football on a daily basis.

- The TV rating for Miami's game with California in the Emerald Bowl (4.63) was highest in bowl history and the 2nd-highest rated ESPN bowl game of the year.
- The Miami at Florida football game on ESPN on Sept. 6 recorded a 5.0 rating on the cable network and was the 3rd most-viewed regular season college football game ever on ESPN. Just ahead of the 2008 Hurricanes-Gators contest are two Miami/Florida State matchups in 2006 and 1994. On Sept. 4, 2006, 9,120,000 people saw the Hurricanes and Seminoles battle and on October 8, 1994, 7,667,000 again saw one of the nation's great rivalries in the 2nd most viewed ESPN game. The Saturday UF-Miami contest was also the 2nd most viewed Saturday night regular season college football game ever on ESPN behind that 1994 Miami/Florida State game.



Radio Network

HURRICANE SPORTS NETWORK
The University of Miami will team with Learfield Communications and ISP Sports this fall to form the Hurricane Sports Network. A collection of 16 radio stations across the state of Florida will carry all of the Hurricanes' football action during the 2009 season.

The Hurricane Sports Network has compiled an impressive list of state affiliates, allowing Miami football games to be heard throughout the state of Florida. WQAM (560 AM) will anchor the Hurricane Sports Network. Miami football games can also be heard over the internet on www.hurricanesports.com.

THE BROADCAST TEAM

Joe Zagacki enters his eighth year as the "Voice of the Hurricanes". Zagacki brings a wealth of experience to the Hurricanes broadcasts after being a part of the South Florida market for 27 years and at WQAM for the past 16 years. This season will mark his 21st season on the University of Miami broadcast team. Zagacki also handles play-by-play duties for Miami basketball, baseball and hosts Hurricane Hotline.

Former Hurricane Don Bailey is the color analyst for football broadcasts again in 2009. Bailey is in his 16th year of broadcasting Hurricanes' football games. He played for UM from 1979-82 and was a captain on the 1982 squad. Bailey was an 11th-round draft pick of the Denver Broncos in 1983 and spent three years as a center in the National Football League. He also hosts Hurricane Hotline.

Brian "The Beast" London is in his eighth year serving as the Hurricanes' sideline reporter. London has been with WQAM since joining the station as an intern in 1997. He graduated from the University of Miami with a B.S. in broadcasting in 1998. London also serves as the studio host for Hurricanes' basketball games, does play-by-play for Miami baseball games, and hosts Hurricane Hotline.

Curtis Stevenson is entering his fifth year as part of the Hurricanes' broadcast team. Stevenson attended Webber College, where he played basketball. He has been with WQAM since 2000 and you can hear him Monday through Friday as part of the Jim Mandich Show and in other on-air roles.

Evan Cohen is in his third year anchoring postgame coverage of Miami football games. Cohen has worked at ESPN 760 since March 2003. A native Westchester, N.Y., he graduated with a B.A. in communication arts from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2002. You can hear him Monday through Friday 4-7 p.m. on ESPN 760 in West Palm Beach, Fla.

STUDENT RADIO
WVUM (90.5 FM), the University of Miami's student radio station which can be heard throughout Miami-Dade County, will carry every home football game and select road games.

UM RADIO NETWORK
The Hurricane Sports Network has compiled an impressive list of state affiliates, allowing Miami football games to be heard throughout the state of Florida. WQAM (560 AM) will anchor the Hurricane Sports Network affiliates. (As of June 30, 2009)

Sports Media Relations

MARK PRAY
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR COMMUNICATIONS

Mark Pray is in his ninth year as Assistant Athletic Director for Communications at the University of Miami. Pray oversees the athletic department's sports media relations efforts, as well as serving as the primary liaison with the department's broadcast partners.

Pray came to Miami in 2001, after serving four years as Director of Media Relations for the WNBA (Women's National Basketball Association) and most recently as Director of Communications Projects for the NBA. In 1988, Pray was named as the first Director of Media Relations for the Miami Heat, a position he held until being promoted to Vice President for Communications in 1995. In his capacity as V.P. for Communications, Pray oversaw the Heat's media and community relations and broadcast departments. Pray received an undergraduate degree in journalism from Kansas State and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

KERWIN LONZO
ASSOCIATE SPORTS MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Kerwin Lonzo is in his fourth year at the University of Miami. He joined the department in February 2007 and now serves as the primary contact for football and golf.

His first two years at Miami, Lonzo served as the baseball contact and secondary football contact before earning the associate position in 2008. Lonzo came to UM from the University of Virginia, where he worked from 2005-07 in sports information in baseball, men's soccer and wrestling. Prior to that, he worked in SID offices at Vanderbilt (2004-2005), East Carolina (2003-04) and Samford (2001-2003) and as sports editor for The Alexander City (Ala.) Outlook and Dadeville (Ala.) Record (2000-2001). A native of New Orleans, La., he earned a B.S. in business administration from Birmingham-Southern College in 2000.

ROB DUNNING
ASSISTANT SPORTS MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Rob Dunning is in his third year at the University of Miami and is entering his second season with the Miami baseball program. He coordinates all media relations efforts for the UM baseball team, in addition to serving as the secondary football contact.

Dunning came to Miami in the fall of 2007 and initially served as the primary media contact for women's tennis, volleyball, rowing and swimming and diving. He also served as a secondary contact for men's basketball during the 2007-08 season.

Prior to Miami, Dunning served as an editorial assistant at the SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily in Charlotte, N.C. He interned in the media relations office at his alma mater, East Carolina University, during the 2004-05 season where he worked with ECU's baseball and volleyball teams.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Dunning received a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from ECU in 2004 and a Master's of Arts in Sports Administration from ECU in 2007.
